

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Private Sector	Grameen Foundation USA	SP3	2	Framework for collaboration is aimed at supporting poor small-scale agricultural producers in developing countries which shall be developed jointly. The purpose is to enhance smallholder access to knowledge and technologies for sustainable production and food security through the use of mobile agriculture supported services.
Private Sector	Kuehne Foundation	SP4, SP5	2	This MoU between FAO and the Kühne-Stiftung (Kuehne Foundation) provides a framework for collaboration in: Humanitarian Logistics; preparedness and logistics related to the level three emergencies; and in fields of common interests related to logistics systems, aiming the optimization of food supply chains and food loss reduction, and contributing to achieve the goals of FAO projects in food logistics.
Private Sector	Auralight	SP1	2, 6	This partnership provides a framework for Aura Light S.r.l. to support FAO's work on small holder producers and promote 'green' agrifood value chains. Aura Light S.r.l. will support FAO through the following modalities: (i) support the food security and development of small-scale producers (smallholders) in developing countries through financial contribution; (ii)
Private Sector	Autogrill	SP2	2, 5, 12	This partnership provides a framework for collaboration between the parties to support small holder food processing enterprises and promote sustainable food systems. The parties agree to join efforts in the fight against hunger and in advocating for the Save Food: Global Initiative on Food Losses and Waste Reduction through joint advocacy and communication at the global, regional and national level.
Private Sector	La Stampa	SP1	2	This partnership provides a framework for collaboration in the area of advocacy and communication related to FAO mandate. The two parties collaborated during the 2015 Expo, together with Farnesina.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Private Sector	Boulder Institute of Microfinance	SP3, SP4	2	This partnership provides a framework for collaboration between the parties aimed at disseminating FAO knowledge in the area of rural and agricultural finance, risk management and agricultural policy to a well-targeted group of financial practitioners, policy makers, the private agribusiness sector, and donors working towards rural financial systems that benefit smallholder families in the developing world.
Private Sector	Messe Düsseldorf GmbH	SP4	2, 12	The objective of this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between FAO and Messe Düsseldorf GmbH is to provide a framework for cooperation in relation to the aims of the Save Food Initiative, and realize specific case studies.
Private Sector	Rabobank Foundation	SP3, SP4	2	This collaboration will contribute to the formulation and implementation of policies and support to the following topics: small-scale producers through better access to financial services, food chain to reduce food waste and losses, farmers' production, and farmers' organizations and cooperatives. Joint design and implementation of field projects aiming to increase access to finance and support investments for smallholders in Tanzania, Ethiopia, Kenya, and Uganda.
Private Sector	Spanish Exporters and Investors Club	SP4	2	This collaboration is aimed at improving capacity related to: networks of local producers; food price volatility; standard development for the commercialization of agricultural, livestock and forestry products; development of best practices especially on the use of new technologies; involvement of the private sector and civil society in the development and implementation of related national policies.

Food and Agriculture Organization
of the United Nations

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Private Sector	AGRIDEA, acting on behalf of the Global Forum for Rural Advisory Services (GFRAS)	SP2, SP5	2, 6, 14	The MoU envisages the following areas of cooperation: development of joint activities to address issues of mutual interest, designed to foster and promote Rural Advisory Services (RAS) policies and capacities; promotion of synergies and elaboration of collaborative programmes; promotion and development of joint RAS programmes, activities or projects.
Private Sector	National Geographic Society	SP2	2	This partnership provides framework for collaboration in the fight against hunger through joint efforts in the field of communication and journalism, including the NGS "Future of Food" series, FAO's annual World Food Day celebrations, and related events. Activities include: sharing of statistics, reports and data ,creation and distribution of editorial content; production of compilation issue with Director-General Op-Ed, etc.
Private Sector	IKEA of Sweden AB	SP2, SP3	5, 15	With this Partnership Agreement between IKEA and FAO, the parties reaffirm their intent to strengthen their collaboration and develop a diagnostic study for advancing sustainable forest management and forest certification in the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam. IKEA and FAO agreed with the Vietnamese government to speed up Sustainable forestry management practices while improving livelihoods of rural people.
Private Sector	Mastercard	SP4, SP5	2	This partnership provides a framework for collaboration aimed at supporting smallholders. Main activities include: supporting FAO projects and initiatives at country level; exchange and dissemination of knowledge; support capacity development related to FAO field programme; addressing income and food security status of host community and refugee populations through integrating economies in Turkana County.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Private Sector	CEMA	SP2	2	This partnership provides a framework for collaboration whereby CEMA will support FAO's work to increase the welfare of farm households and create positive dynamics and opportunities for economic growth in rural areas through sustainable mechanization efforts. Main activities include contribution to and participate in relevant meetings on agricultural mechanization under the global umbrella of the AgriEvolution Alliance.
Private Sector	Google	SP2	2, 12, 14, 15	This partnership provides a framework for a collaboration between the parties to leverage form Google's technical expertise on geospatial products and training capacity to help develop and support FAO systems and services for the monitoring of natural resources, livelihoods and the environment.
Private Sector	El País	SP1	2	This partnership envisions dissemination of information concerning the activities carried out by FAO to fulfill its mandate, as well as efforts of the international community to achieve food security and sustainable development of rural areas. Main activities include: joint initiatives with multidisciplinary approaches such as reports, lectures, conferences, roundtables, press conferences, professional exchange projects, etc.
Private Sector	Grupo TRAGSA	SP2	2, 6, 15	This partnership provides a framework for cooperation between the parties in order to contribute to food security and to the development of small food processing enterprises in developing countries.
Private Sector	The Rockefeller Foundation	SP4	12	This partnership, launched in September 2016, involves the Rockefeller Foundation supporting the Global Initiative on Food Loss and Waste Reduction within the context of the African region for the implementation of the African Union (AU) Malabo Declaration on Agriculture and Postharvest Losses 2025.

Food and Agriculture Organization
of the United Nations

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Private Sector	Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation	SP2, SP3		This collaboration aims at supporting projects in the field of agricultural statistics and policies, as well as the Agricultural Market Information System (AMIS) in selected countries (Nigeria, India, Bangladesh) using innovative methods and digital technology. Bangladesh is currently receiving support to improve its agricultural market information systems, using innovative methods and digital technology. This initiative was designed in the context of the Agricultural Market Information System (AMIS) established at the request of the Agriculture Ministers of the G20 to enhance food market transparency and encourage coordination of policy action in response to market uncertainty.
Private Sector	Compañía Espanola de Financiación Del Desarrollo, Cofides S.A.	SP1, SP2, SP4	2, 15	This partnership was established to foster collaboration in to support investments in value chain development in order to enable local stakeholders to benefit either directly or indirectly from such investments.
Private Sector	Thomson Reuters Foundation	SP1	2	This partnership envisions production and distribution of impartial information related to hunger, nutrition and food production challenges and related issues; promote editorial content to raise public awareness and knowledge of the necessary actions to eliminate hunger; foster information and knowledge exchange between FAO technical staff and TRF journalists; provide the framework for further developing training activities for journalists from other media.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Private Sector	Mars, Incorporated	SP4	2, 14	This partnership provides a framework of collaboration aimed at promoting and supporting the development of inclusive and sustainable agricultural systems and to share technical expertise to enhance global food safety and support the identification and management of food safety threats. Main areas include: collaboration to improve the FAO's technical guidance on mycotoxins prevention and control.
Private Sector	La Asociación Española de Mayoristas, Importadores, Transformadores y Exportadores de Productos de la Pesca y Acuicultura (CONXEMAR)	SP1	14	The aim of this partnership is to help improve knowledge of fishery and aquaculture products, especially the frozen sector, improve access to the resources of developing country populations and facilitate decision-making by operators worldwide; contribute to the achievement of FAO's objectives in developing countries in which fisheries is an important resource; contribute to the dissemination of knowledge on fishery resources.
Private Sector	Fertitecnica Colfiorito Srl	SP3, SP4	2	This collaboration is aimed at supporting smallholder farmers' access to market. This initiative will help support small farmers in the southern hemisphere while helping promote a healthy nutrition in Italy and Europe. This partnerships will bring beans, chickpeas and lentils from agricultural cooperatives in developing countries to the shelves of Italian and European supermarkets.
Private Sector	International Fertilizer Association (IFA)	SP3	2	The purpose of this MoU between FAO and the International Fertilizer Association (IFA) is to agree on terms and conditions for collaboration between the parties to develop, advocate and strengthen joint actions to promote Sustainable Food and Agriculture and address related issues and topics, including the assessment of soil nutrient availability and sustainable use of soils and fertilizers.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Private Sector	CNH Industrial Italia SpA	SP3	2	The main objective of this cooperation is to reduce rural poverty and food insecurity in arid areas of Tunisia by contributing a sum of USD 150,000.00 towards implementation of several projects.
Private Sector	Unilever	SP1, SP2, SP4	12	The parties declare their intention to cooperate in the following areas: Food Loss and Waste; Global Climate Action Agenda and Climate Change and Agriculture; Digital Innovation Collaboration; Supporting resilience-building in disaster and emergency settings; voluntary Guidelines on the responsible Governance of Tenure/Land Rights.
Private Sector	Nuffield International Farming Scholars	SP1	2, 5	Mainly funded by the private sector partners, Nuffield International Farming Scholars provide culturally inclusive and gender equal scholarship opportunities for farmers, food producers, fishers and other agricultural value chain actors, especially those from the global south, between 28-40 years old, rather than university students.
Private Sector	ENI	SP2	6	This collaboration aims at promoting agriculture and improved water resources in North East. Specifically, the parties collaborate to develop the Access to Water Project.
Private Sector	Telefonica	SP4, SP5	2, 6	The partnership between FAO and Telefonica aims at developing and promoting better use to IT/Digital innovation, providing better information and data access to small holder farmers and local stakeholders is the overall goal of the partnership.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Private Sector	Nibulon Ltd.	SP4	2, 12	The main objective of this partnership between FAO and Nibulon Ltd. is to develop, promote and strengthen joint actions and projects to improve grain supply chains, in particular the efficiency of post-harvest systems. Areas of mutual interest and potential collaboration include improving the efficiency of grain storage, logistics and transportation in Serbia and Egypt.
Private Sector	International Poultry Council (IPC)	SP1	2, 6, 15	The collaboration between FAO and IPC includes: knowledge sharing and analysis; collaboration on programmes and projects focusing on elimination of hunger and malnutrition as well as rural poverty reduction; collaboration in responding to and controlling the spread of poultry diseases; promotion of best practices for responsible poultry production; organization of joint events and/or reciprocal invitations to meetings.
Private Sector	Pasona Group Inc.	SP1	2	The collaboration between FAO and Pasona Group Inc. include: i) joint studies or projects on specific thematic areas; ii) capacity building activities including training, internships, fellowships, and lectures; iii) knowledge sharing and dissemination of information; and iv) advocacy and awareness raising through joint events and exhibitions.
Private Sector	TE-FOOD	SP2	2	The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between FAO and TE-FOOD International GmbH is to provide a framework for partnership between the parties with a view to contribute to a better understanding of the applications of blockchain technology and its implications for the statisticians responsible for official statistics in the livestock sector.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Private Sector	Guangfa Securities	SP3	2, 5, 15	The main objective of this cooperation is to promote smart and green agriculture and thus reduce rural poverty in China. Through this LoI, FAO and Guangfa Securities declared their intention to: i) assist the Government of China in implementing its rural revitalization strategy; ii) contribute to the achievement of the SDGs (especially SDG 1 and 2); iii) collaborate under the FAO's poverty reduction programme in China; iv) empower the Farmer Field School programme with Information and Communication Technologies (ICTs) tools; and v) promote agroecology and rural revitalization in China.
Private Sector	FLAMA	SP4	2, 5	The main objective of this cooperation is to develop joint actions for the development and dissemination of good practices of inclusive trade, reduction of losses and waste as well as strengthening of wholesale market management models of the region under the concept of food security. The activities include: i) exchange of publications, studies, reports and all types of information; ii) development of platforms, and/or tools to share knowledge and information; iii) capacity building, including training, seminars, workshops, events, etc.; iv)
Private Sector	Al-Sulaiteen Agricultural Research, Studies and Training Center (SARSTC)	SP3, SP4	2, 5, 6, 12, 15	The MOU between FAO and Al-Sulaiteen Agricultural Research, Studies and Training Center (SARSTC) formalizes collaborations in support of all SPs by developing, promoting and strengthening joint actions and projects to improve agriculture activities and food security situation in the Middle East and North Africa. In particular, joint actions aim at, among other things, exchange information and knowledge about agricultural and food systems techniques in support of small holding farmers and rural population.

Food and Agriculture Organization
of the United Nations

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Private Sector	Itaipu Binacional	SP2	2, 15	Itaipu Binacional has decided to support the implementation of actions of sustainable territorial development, having as parameters the economic, social and environmental, with emphasis on the socio-productive inclusion of emblematic cases of Parana and southern Brazil, such as Family programs Agriculture and Food Security, Youth and Succession Technical Assistance and Rural Extension, Cooperative and Productive Chains, "Matas Ciliares Program".
Private Sector	Fundação Banco do Brasil (FBB)	SP2	2	This collaboration is aimed at promoting activities of technical advice, training and exchange of information and knowledge related to the agrifood supply in Brazil, to support the efforts of the parties to increase production and productivity, particularly for small and family farmers, through the intensification of sustainable production systems.
Private Sector - Foundations	Philippines Disaster Resilience Foundation (PDRF)	SP5	2	This partnership aims to strengthen collaboration between the parties to develop, promote and strengthen joint actions and projects to restore livelihoods and improve the level of food security and nutrition in areas vulnerable to natural and human-induced hazards, in particular by supporting vulnerable communities and providing assistance to increase resilience.
Private Sector - Foundations	New Venture Fund	SP1	2	The New Venture Fund approved a grant to FAO in the amount of $50,000 through our Fund for Global Policy and Advocacy.

Food and Agriculture Organization
of the United Nations

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Coops and producers	International Co-operative Alliance (ICA)	SP1, SP2, SP3, SP4, SP5	2, 5	This collaboration is aimed at: a.Generate and promote exchanges of knowledge and good practices; b.Support the advancement of the cooperative model at three levels (individual, organizational and policy/legal) inclusive of smallholder farmers; c.Organize and participate in regional and global policy consultation processes and awareness-raising events, highlighting important contributions of cooperatives working with small-scale farmers and within the family farming context.
Coops and producers	Union des Producteurs Agricoles (Québec) – Développement International - UPA/DI	SP3	2	This collaboration is aimed at identifying strategies for capacity strengthening of producer organizations and cooperatives; developing pilot approaches and pedagogic tools for capacity development through farmer-to farmer support; and giving a voice to producer organizations in policy and technical fora.
Coops and producers	AgriCord	SP3	2, 5	To deepen the complementarities of AgriCord and its agri-agencies and FAO (through the Forest and Farm Facility as implementing partners of FFF Phase II, the World Agricultural Watch and other programs and initiatives aligned with forest and farm producer organizations including cooperatives).
Coops and producers	International Centre for Advanced Mediterranean Agronomic Studies (CIHEAM)	SP2, SP3	2, 5, 6, 12	This collaboration is aimed at facilitating, organizing and participating in regional and global policy consultation processes and awareness-raising events, highlighting the important contributions of Mediterranean perspectives and approaches and advancing the Mediterranean issues related to food security and nutrition; supporting field programme implementation; and generating and sharing knowledge.

Food and Agriculture Organization
of the United Nations

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Civil Society	La Via Campesina	SP1, SP2, SP3	2	The types of cooperation envisaged in the EoL include: promotion of programmes that support peasant, small-holder based, agro-ecological food production and farmers' seeds strategies; collaboration to promote and facilitate the flow of global knowledge on agriculture and nutrition issues and proposes that FAO supports in particular the exchange of experiences among small holder organizations; etc.
Civil Society	Plan International	SP5	2	This collaboration is aimed at developing, promoting and strengthening joint actions and projects for the furtherance and promotion of food security environments in households and communities around the world that are characterized by poverty and vulnerability.
Civil Society	World Wildlife Fund - WWF	SP2	14	This partnership envisions cooperation in the area of sustainable development of small-scale fisheries; protection of marine areas of Mediterranean and Black sea; IUU fishing and seafood traceability.
Civil Society	Slow Food	SP2, SP4	2, 12, 15	This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) provides for collaboration between the parties to develop, promote and strengthen joint actions and projects to improve the livelihood of populations living in rural areas, in particular communities and households of smallholder farmers, forest dwellers and fishers and fish workers, and to ensure more inclusive food and agriculture
Civil Society	Deutsche Welthungerhilfe e. V.	SP1, SP5	2	Framework for cooperation is aimed at promoting the realization of the right to adequate food in the context of national food security, physical and economic accessibility for everyone, and promoting improvements of the governance of tenure of land, fisheries and forests for the benefit of all.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Civil Society	International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC)	SP4, SP5	2	Collaboration is aimed at developing, promoting and strengthening joint actions and projects for the furtherance and promotion of food security environments in households and communities around the world that are characterized by poverty and vulnerability. Collaboration includes activities related to building resilience on reducing food losses and waste; disaster risk assessment, monitoring and early warning systems; forecast-based financing; etc.
Civil Society	AMARC World Association of Community Radio Broadcasters	SP3	2, 5	This partnership aims to strengthen collaboration related to the Communication for Development and the role of community radios in promoting FAO mandate in rural areas.
Civil Society	International Planning Committee for Food Sovereignty - IPC	SP1, SP2, SP3	2, 12	This partnership with IPC gathering 300 millions of small-scale food producers, aims to facilitate the participation of small-scale food producers in the work of FAO, contribute to the development and implementation of global, regional and country level programs, projects and policies in an inclusive manner.
Civil Society	Caritas Internationalis	SP1, SP4	2	This partnership envisions coordination of advocacy efforts and joint delivery of key messages for awareness raising and call to action; establishment of an agreement between FAO HQ and the Diocesan Caritas of Rome to channel and redistribute food produce (and other basic items) unsold by the FAO Commissary.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Civil Society	World Vision International - WVI	SP2, SP5	2, 5	This partnership provides framework for collaboration between the parties to develop, promote and strengthen joint action and projects for the furtherance and promotion of food security environments in households and communities around the world that are characterized by poverty and vulnerability. Main areas of collaboration include: Global Food Security Cluster, LEAP Partnership, Global Alliance for Climate-Smart Agriculture, Resilience and nutrition, Free Prior and Informed Consent.
Civil Society	WeEffect	SP2, SP3	2, 5	This partnership provides a framework for collaboration aimed at supporting countries to strengthen capacities of Producer Organizations, to improve organizational development, service delivery, market access, good governance, gender equality, lobbying and advocacy for policy change; increasing availability and access to training opportunities, capacity development processes and materials; enhancing resource mobilization in support of Producer Organizations; facilitating advocacy and knowledge sharing.
Civil Society	Action Aid - AA	SP1, SP2, SP3, SP4	2, 5, 12, 15	This partnership provides a framework for collaboration aimed at developing, promoting and strengthening joint actions and projects to improve the livelihood of populations living in rural areas, in particular communities and households of smallholder peasants and family farmers, women, forest dwellers, fishers and fish workers, and to ensure more inclusive and sustainable food and agricultural systems at local, national and regional level.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Civil Society	Asian Farmer's Association for Sustainable Rural Development Inc. (AFA)	SP1, SP2, SP3	2, 5	This partnership provides a framework for cooperation between the parties with an overall goal of supporting countries to strengthen capacities of farmers' organizations to improve organizational development, service delivery, market access, good governance on land, gender equality, lobbying and advocacy for policy change in the Asia and the Pacific region.
Civil Society	International Union of Notaries (UINL)	SP1	2, 5	This partnership provides a framework of cooperation between the parties aimed at promoting a responsible governance of tenure. UINL pursues the dissemination of information on the Voluntary Guidelines among its 86 national members and 300,000 notaries. In particular, this dissemination will be continued by creating an FAO Internet link on the website www.uinl.org and a news section on this website.
Civil Society	The Network of Marine Protected Rea Managers in the Mediterranean (MedPAN)	SP1	14	This partnership provides a framework of cooperation and understanding and to facilitate collaboration between the parties to further their shared goals and objectives in relation to the conservation of marine environment and ecosystems and the sustainable use of marine living resources in their respective fields of competence.
Civil Society	International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (IUCN)	SP2	2, 14, 15	The objective of this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between FAO and the International Union for Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (IUCN) is to define the general framework within which the parties may develop projects and activities for joint implementation, from time to time, through specific agreements in the following areas: biodiversity and agriculture; forestry; fisheries and oceans; environmental law.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Civil Society	General Secretariat of the Khalifa International Date Palm Award	SP1, SP2	2, 6, 12, 14, 15	Explore areas of collaboration, including joint publications, workshops and other activities related to date palm production; and to identify potential synergies in collaborating locally and regionally in sharing and disseminating information related to the area of nutrition and date palm production.
Civil Society	Self Employed Women's Association (SEWA)	SP1, SP3	2, 5, 12, 15	This partnership provides a framework for collaboration related to empowering rural people and increasing access to productive resources, services and economic opportunities with a particular focus on women, and their participation in agriculture value chains; strengthening the capacities of rural poor to improve organizational development, good governance, gender equality, lobbying and advocacy for policy change.
Civil Society	Consumers International	SP1, SP4	2, 5	This partnership provides a framework for collaboration aimed at developing, promoting and strengthening joint actions and projects to improve food and nutritional security, in particular working towards the full realization of the right to adequate food worldwide and sustainable consumption. Main activities include: organization of joint meetings and events; distribution of FAO materials; development of projects and campaigns for consumer awareness on food safety; etc.
Civil Society	FOCSIV - Federazione Organismi Cristiani Servizio Internazionale Volontario	SP1	2	The purpose of this MoU is to provide a framework for cooperation between FAO and FOCSIV with the overall objective of enhancing the implementation of FAO SOs through the assignment of Italian Volunteers to FAO offices.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Civil Society	Interpeace	SP5	2	Within this partnership framework, the two parties are working together to develop, promote and strengthen joint actions and initiatives to improve contributions to sustaining peace and conflict prevention in the context of Agenda 2030. Among other things, FAO and Interpeace are developing training modules on conflict sensitivity for FAO staff.
Civil Society	Réseau International URGENCI (Urgenci)	SP2, SP3, SP4	2, 12	Within this partnership framework, among other areas of work, FAO and Urgenci have agreed to collect evidence and promote the exchange of existing practices, methods and good experiences on local and solidarity-based food distribution systems between consumers and producers, as well as to strengthen territorial food systems as an efficient tool to make agriculture and food production more productive and sustainable.
Civil Society	Norwegian Refugee Council (NRC)	SP5	2, 6	This Agreement between NRC and FAO provides a framework for cooperation in which NRC will contribute towards the implementation of FAO's emergency and rehabilitation projects/programmes through the loan to FAO of Stand-by Personnel to work on FAO's emergency operations.
Civil Society	Danish Refugee Council (DRC)	SP5	2, 6	This Agreement between DRC and FAO provides a framework for cooperation in which DRC will contribute towards the implementation of FAO's emergency and rehabilitation projects/programmes through the loan to FAO of Stand-by Personnel to work on FAO's emergency operations.
Civil Society	Canadian Civil Response Corps	SP5	2, 6	This Agreement between CCRP and FAO provides a framework for cooperation in which CCRP will contribute towards the implementation of FAO's emergency and rehabilitation projects/programmes through the loan to FAO of Stand-by Personnel to work on FAO's emergency operations.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Civil Society	iMAAP	SP5	2, 6	This Agreement between iMAAP and FAO provides a framework for cooperation in which iMAAP will contribute towards the implementation of FAO's emergency and rehabilitation projects/programmes through the loan to FAO of Stand-by Personnel to work on FAO's emergency operations.
Civil Society	RedR Australia	SP5	2	This Agreement between RedR Australia Limited and FAO provides a framework for cooperation in which RedR will contribute towards the implementation of FAO's emergency and rehabilitation projects/programmes through the loan to FAO of Stand-by Personnel to work on FAO's emergency operations.
Civil Society	Carrefour International (Carrefour) Centre d'étude et de coopération internationale (CECI) Mer et Monde Solidarité Union et Coopération (SUCO) Société de coopération pour le développement international (SOCODEVI) Union des producteurs agricoles – Développement international (UPA-DI)	SP1, SP2, SP3, SP4	2, 5	The general objective of the CP is to mobilize knowledge and consolidate and nurture a dynamic of learning, exchange, mutual aid and innovation, by pooling the French-speaking expertise of OCI and the expertise of the FAO office in Senegal. It will enable Members to work collectively to build their climate resilience capacity for food and nutrition security in Senegal, both at the level of cooperation projects and internally, within each organization.
Civil Society	Asociación Coordinadora Indígena y Campesina de Agroforestería Comunitaria Centroamericana (ACICAFOC)	SP2, SP3	2, 5	The two parties agreed to work together on issues related to strengthening of indigenous food-systems, as well the active inclusion of rural and indigenous women and youth, and the exchange of experiences and knowledge through South-South cooperation.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Civil Society	World Rural Forum	SP1, SP2, SP3	2, 3	FAO and WRF have agreed to conduct joint actions and projects to fight against poverty, contribute to an adequate food and nutrition of the world and support the attainment of the SDGs through the strengthening of Family Farming at national, regional and international levels.
Academia and research institutions	Unión de Universidades de América Latina y el Caribe (UDUAL)	SP1	2	A network of 226 universities partner with FAO for the joint development of a Master's Degree in Food Security, based on FAO's e-learning courses available through the FAO e-learning Center. The partnership with UDUAL ensures knowledge and education are made accessible to thousands of professionals working in food security and nutrition in Latin America and the Caribbean.
Academia and research institutions	Tokyo University of Agriculture and Technology (TUAT)	SP1, SP2	2, 12	This MoU for facilitates collaboration between the parties in relations to the field of green and clean food production, exchange of experts, policy dialogue, etc.
Academia and research institutions	Institut Polytechnique Lasalle Beauvais	SP1	2	The partnership builds capacity development through FAO technical support to LaSalle's Masters Course in Food Security; exchange of fellows, interns; and joint participation in related research projects.
Academia and research institutions	Mississippi State University	SP2, SP5	2, 6, 14	This collaboration is aimed at enhancing the capacity of developing countries in managing animal and veterinary public health, plant health, fish health, food safety and nutrition programmes thereby contributing to improved food security, human health and economic development globally.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	French Agricultural Research Centre for International Development - CIRAD and INRA	SP1, SP2, SP3, SP4, SP5	2, 6, 12, 14, 15	This collaboration focuses on (1) sustainable agriculture systems (in particular, agroecology, sustainable natural resources management, eg., water, land); (2) safe and sustainable food systems (in particular nutrition, waste and losses, food safety); (3) sanitary risks (animal and plant health, One Health, AMR), (4) territorial development (with territorial approaches), (5) biodiversity and genetic resources, with crosscutting issues like innovations, climate change and migration.
Academia and research institutions	Agrinatura	SP2	2	This MoU between FAO and Agrinatura provides a framework for cooperation aimed at strengthening comprehensive capacities to accelerate agricultural innovation processes and partnerships between Universities and Research Centres throughout Europe and developing countries.
Academia and research institutions	Tropical Agricultural Research and Higher Education Center - CATIE	SP2, SP5	2, 15	CATIE – a regional university for research and education based in Costa Rica and FAO are jointly carrying out capacity development activities throughout the Central America region, in areas related to natural resource conflict management, forest financing strategies, and forest biomass assessment. In Central America, the collaboration focuses on forest/agro-forestry and natural resource-related projects and conducting joint research and studies.
Academia and research institutions	Texas A&M University System-USA	SP1, SP2, SP5	2, 6, 12	The aim of this partnership is strengthen agricultural production innovations in order to improve food security. Joint activities contribute to sound quantitative data generation on quality and safety of feed resources, enabling their efficient and safe utilization, strengthening sustainable use of locally available feed resources, leading to sustainable development of the livestock sector.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	Universidade Aberta of Portugal	SP1, SP2	2	UAP and FAO have joined in partnership to undertake activities directly contributing to the support of food security and nutrition in the Community of Portuguese Language Speaking (CPLP) Countries. Joint activities are undertaken to promote capacity development to advance knowledge on food security, nutrition and sustainable agriculture.
Academia and research institutions	Universidad Politécnica de Madrid	SP1	2	The overall objective of this MoU is to leverage the knowledge and experience of UPM in the implementation of activities related to development cooperation in the fields of agriculture, food and nutrition, environment and climate change. Planned activities include: research, capacity development on rural and economic impacts of agriculture, resource mobilization, master course development, and developing the Network of University Rectors.
Academia and research institutions	Japan International Centre for Agricultural Sciences - JIRCAS	SP2	2, 12	This partnership envisions joint activities to promote knowledge exchange and policy dialogue to support research and advocacy in areas of food security, food loss/waste, sustainable agricultural mechanization, and Climate Smart Agriculture. Main activities include information analysis on food demand and supply modeling and joint research and advocacy on soil and crops.
Academia and research institutions	Michigan State University	SP1, SP2	2, 6, 14	This partnership aims to promote cooperation in the area of inland fisheries, with the overall goal of improving food security, sustainable production, poverty alleviation and resilient livelihoods through the integration of inland capture fisheries into global discussions on land and water development and management.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	University of Tsukuba	SP2	2	This partnership supports promotion of knowledge sharing, contributing to human resource capacity building towards sustainable development through joint effort and collaboration. Main areas of cooperation include capacity building and training for university students including the organization of internships, lectures and other relevant programmes and events and curriculum development.
Academia and research institutions	Italian Research Institutions: Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche; Consiglio per la ricerca in agricoltura e l'analisi dell'economia agraria; Agenzia Nazionale per le nuove tecnologie, l'energia e lo sviluppo economica	SP1, SP2, SP4	2, 6, 15	This partnership provides a framework for cooperation between the parties with the overall goal of enhancing the sustainability of the food production and nutrition in developing countries. Partnership being renewed in June 2018 under guidance of Italian Permanent Representation, with addition of ISPRA to support new identified themes of work.
Academia and research institutions	University of Milan (UNIMI)	SP1	15	The partnership promotes capacity building and training on sustainable management of Mountain Areas, among the Mountain Partnership member countries and organizations. This is done through the coordination of educational and capacity building activities related to mountain development issues by jointly organizing courses within the International Programme on Research and Training on Sustainable Management of Mountain Areas (IPROMO).
Academia and research institutions	International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI)	SP5	2	This partnership envisions collaboration in implementing data collection on issues pertaining to sustainable agriculture and Climate-Smart Agriculture (CSA). Main activities include: (a) promotion of collaborative research on CSA in Malawi and Zambia; (b) collection of household and community level data in Malawi; (c) share data resulting from ongoing research activities in Malawi and Zambia.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	Ankara University Turkey	SP3, SP4	2	This partnership supports food security and nutrition and natural resources management through: capacity development by use of FAO resources and materials to support curricula and development of training modules/courses; advocacy activities undertaken in support of IYP, World Food Day, Family Farming; joint project collaborations including Ankara Initiative and Land Degradation Neutrality, Decision Support for Scaling Up and Mainstreaming Sustainable Land Management.
Academia and research institutions	The African Rice Center (AfricaRice)	SP1, SP2	2	This partnership envisions joint implementation of Programme for Rice Development in Africa (PARDA) and implementation of National Rice Development Strategies to strengthen rice value chains.
Academia and research institutions	Wageningen UR (University and Research Centre)	SP1, SP2, SP3, SP4, SP5	2, 12, 14, 15	Cooperation on research and projects in support of Climate Smart Agriculture; joint case studies on cooperatives and cooperatives management; research food loss and waste program, promotion of the SAVE Food Initiative; and joint projects related to agroecology. Addendum to MoU signed in 2016 for formation of joint Nutrition Focus Group.
Academia and research institutions	International Forestry Students' Association (IFSA)	SP1	15	This partnership provides a framework of cooperation for the dissemination and enhancement of forestry educational information; promotional events, learning and career opportunities and networks.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	Brazilian Agricultural Research Corporation (embrapa)	SP1, SP2, SP4	2	The MoU envisages collaboration through various cooperative mechanisms and knowledge exchange, including South-South and Triangular Cooperation capacity development; knowledge transfer in sustainable agricultural technologies and practices; scientific cooperation and knowledge; formulation of public policies; identification and dissemination of good governance mechanisms for equitable and sustainable management of natural resources; promote efficiency improvements in small scale agro-industries.
Academia and research institutions	Tufts University	SP1	2	This EoL aims at generating, sharing and disseminating reliable indicators of food and nutrient consumption. In particular, FAO and FSNSP will exchange methodologies and review scientific documents through: utilizing data compiled by FSNSP through its Global Dietary Database (GDD) to directly contribute to the pilot FAO/WHO Global Individual Food consumption data Tool (FAO/WHO GIFT).
Academia and research institutions	Chinese Academy of Agricultural Sciences (CAAS)	SP2, SP4, SP5	2	This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the Chinese Academy of Agricultural Sciences (CAAS) and FAO provides a framework for cooperation between the parties with the overall goal of fostering institutional capacity development, technology and experience transfer to other developing countries under the South-South Cooperation (SSC) framework between FAO and the Ministry of Agriculture of the People's Republic of China.
Academia and research institutions	University of the Basque Country	SP1	2	With this Agreement between FAO and the University of the Basque Country – Universidad del País Vasco/Euskal Herriko Unibertsitatea - Master on Decentralized International Cooperation: Peace and Development UPV/EHU (MPD), the parties agree to renew the collaboration for the assignment of recent graduates of different nationalities from UPV/EHU (MPD), to work as Fellows in one of FAO's decentralized offices.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	Università degli Studi Roma Tre	SP1, SP3, SP4, SP5	2, 5	The parties agreed to strengthen cooperation in relation to Roma Tre's two Master's programmes. The long term goal of this collaboration is to contribute to Roma Tre's research and academic activities through the integration of the following FAO priority themes in the Courses: Family Farming, Nutrition, Microfinance, Statistics, Cooperatives, Gender, Responsible Investment in Agriculture and the VGGT, and RAI.
Academia and research institutions	the Animal Population Health Institute (APHI), Colorado State University	SP1	2	With this Exchange of Letters between the Animal Population Health Institute (APHI), Colorado State University and the Animal Health Service of FAO, the designation of APHI as an FAO Reference Centre for veterinary epidemiology is renewed for a further four-year period. provide advice and expertise on veterinary epidemiology at large and in particular on global food security and geospatial analysis.
Academia and research institutions	the Royal Veterinary College (RVC)	SP1	2	Through this partnership, the RVC provides advice and expertise on veterinary epidemiology at large and in particular on risk-based animal disease surveillance to FAO or countries which are FAO Members; inform FAO with regard to changes in epidemiologic situations of animal diseases and to any risks that have been identified to be associated to animal diseases; assess risks associated to animal diseases and provide advice.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	the Southeast Poultry Research Laboratory (SEPRL)	SP1	2	Through this partnership, the SEPRL provides emergency animal influenza (AI) and Newcastle disease (ND) reference laboratory services without charge to FAO or to FAO members according to the title/function of the reference centre; contribute to the OIE/FAO network of expertise on animal influenza (OFFLU) by sharing information with the OFFLU network; share biological materials and associated information.
Academia and research institutions	the Australian Animal Health Laboratory (AAHL)	SP1	2	Exchange of Letters between the Australian Animal Health Laboratory (AAHL) of the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organization (CSIRO) and the Animal Health Service of FAO assist with standardization of biosafety procedures and techniques, as part of quality assurance systems, including harmonization with activities of OIE and WHO in developing relevant considerations and applications from the CEN Workshop Agreement (CWA).
Academia and research institutions	Kazan State Agrarian University, Russian Federation	SP1	2	This partnership envisions joint actions for sustainable development of agriculture under climate change; increased agricultural productivity on the base of innovative technologies; coordination of a KSAU student study tour to the FAO Agriculture Department; refinement of KSAU Master's level curricula through integration of FAO technical materials in areas that are pertinent to the expertise of the Organization, i.e., food security.
Academia and research institutions	University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign United States of America	SP1, SP3	5	This partnership provides a framework for cooperation between the parties, in the context of its leadership role in the Integrating Gender and Nutrition within Agricultural Extension Services (INGENAES) Consortium. The overall objectives are to generate and disseminate knowledge and to develop the capacities in the field of gender-equitable rural advisory services through piloting the Gender and Rural Advisory Services Assessment.

Food and Agriculture Organization
of the United Nations

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	Sam Moyo African Institute for Agrarian Studies	SP3	2, 5	In 2016, FAO signed a Memorandum of Understanding with SMAIAS committing to partner to support the agrarian and rural transformation in developing countries that would reduce inequality of access to rural land rights, increase rural employment opportunities help to eradicate rural poverty and improve the sustainable livelihoods of the poor.
Academia and research institutions	Kyoto University, Japan	SP2, SP4	2, 12	This partnership is aimed at promoting and advancing joint work on economic and natural resources modelling tools to support agricultural decision-making and management under climate change conditions; Joint work on generation of statistics and statistical analysis.
Academia and research institutions	Sapienza University, Italy	SP2, SP3, SP4, SP5	2	This partnership provides a framework for cooperation between the parties with the overall goal of enhancing food security and sustainability in agriculture through use of innovative research, knowledge sharing, capacity development and implementation of research outputs and through responsible investment in agriculture. Areas of collaboration include: statistical and data analysis; food safety and quality; agriculture climate change nexus.

Food and Agriculture Organization
of the United Nations

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	University of Catholique de Louvain Belgium	SP2, SP5	2, 15	FAO and University of Louvain are working together towards strengthening of capacities to address global climate change mitigation and adaptation as well as combating desertification. Among other things, the two partners are working on remote-sensing dryness mapping for early warning systems of desert locust affected countries in Africa and Asia; and assessment, monitoring, sustainable management and restoration of dryland forests and agrosilvopastoral systems to address land degradation/desertification and climate change.
Academia and research institutions	Universidade Federal Do Rio Grande do Sul Brazil	SP1, SP2	2	This Protocol may promote developing links in the following fields: exchange of staff members from both Institutions; learning and teaching, including the development of a programme that leads to a diploma; exchange of documents and research material; coordination by the corresponding departments in collaborative or joint research projects.
Academia and research institutions	Agreenium	SP1, SP2	2	Agreenium - a consortium of six French research and higher education institutions in agriculture, food, animal health and environment is partnering with FAO to cooperate in key research areas and coordinate action within the global framework of FAO's revised Strategic Framework. The collaboration foresees promotion of the Tropical Agriculture Platform through consultation and exchange of experts and researchers.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	Global African Swine Fever Research Alliance - GARA	SP1	2	The purpose of this MOU is to describe the cooperative relationship among the participants to facilitate the sharing of confidential information and the development of proposals for research and development projects in the area of the detection, management and eradication of African Swine Fever (ASF) and any other areas of scientific research and development the participants agree to focus on.
Academia and research institutions	International Rice Research Institute (IRRI)	SP1, SP2, SP4	2	FAO and the International Rice Research Institute (IRRI) have agreed to cooperate more closely to support sustainable rice production in developing countries to improve food security and livelihoods while safeguarding natural resources. The partnership primarily aims to enhance sustainable rice-based farming systems through capacity building activities - including assisting
Academia and research institutions	University of Liege	SP1, SP2, SP3, SP5	2	The purpose of this MoU is to provide a framework for cooperation between the parties with the overall goal to build resilience of African francophone communities. This collaboration will initially focus on climate change and migration impacts on rural youth, One Health/pandemic threats, sustainable energy for migratory populations, urban agriculture and more generally in fields of veterinary medicine, bio-engineering and agriculture.
Academia and research institutions	Regional Universities Forum for Capacity Building in Agriculture (RUFORUM)	SP2, SP3	2	The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is to provide a framework for cooperation between FAO and RUFORUM with the overall goal to strengthen the capacities of RUFORUM member universities to better contribute to the improvement of food security, nutrition, increasing sustainability, inclusiveness and resilience of agricultural and food systems, adapting to the climate change.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	Research Institute of Agricultural Economics (Hungary)	SP1	2	This MoU provides a framework of collaboration between FAO (REU) and AKI aimed at strengthening capacities at national and regional level on food and nutrition security, sustainable management of natural resources and rural development; and raising awareness on good policies and practices, and global events in support of food and nutrition security.
Academia and research institutions	Chiang Mai University	SP2	2	The partnership enables the collaboration on curricula development leading to improved training for land specialists within the Mekong region; development of joint research activities; organization of regional training workshops, expert consultations and study tours on relevant issues related to land and natural resources governance. The particular focus will be on related to the promotion of VGGT.
Academia and research institutions	Humboldt University	SP3	2	This Lol exchange demonstrate the aim of two parties to collaborate on the activities related to rural investments and information sharing between private sector actors and universities.
Academia and research institutions	University of Lisbon	SP1, SP2	2	The purpose of this MoU is to provide an initial institutional framework for further cooperation between the parties with the overall goal to contribute to the improvement of food security and nutrition situation in Community of Portuguese Language Countries (CPLP).

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	Universite Laval	SP1, SP4	2, 15	FAO and UL, amongst other things, have agreed to develop and provide technical guidance, data and tools to support FAO Member States' implementation of Nationally Determined Contributions to mitigate and adapt to climate change impacts; strengthen stakeholder capacities to combat desertification through joint development and dissemination of knowledge products and projects on agroforestry and forest tenure; and to develop technical tools and guidance on food safety and controls.
Academia and research institutions	Szent Istvan University (Godollo - SZIU)	SP1	2	This partnership agreement envisages collaboration in relation to the engagement of academic and research expertise in evidence-based policy processes at the regional level (REU), use of FAO e-learning resources in the University curricula, etc.
Academia and research institutions	Russian State Agrarian University – Moscow Timiryazev Agricultural Academy	SP1, SP2, SP3, SP4	2, 15	The purpose of this MoU is to provide a framework for cooperation related to capacity development, joint research and studies, data exchange, information sharing and outreach, in particular as relevant to the region, on themes of family farming, soil and water management, climate change, rural development, and agriculture trade.
Academia and research institutions	Agriculture Faculty of Kabul University (AFKU)	SP1	2	This Arrangement between FAO and Agriculture Faculty of Kabul University (AFKU) aims to set up partnership and technical collaboration between the parties on joint actions and activities related to capacity building, food security and zero hunger in Afghanistan.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	The Institut de Recherché pour le Développement (IRD)	SP1, SP4	2	FAO and the Institut de Recherche pour le Développement (IRD) shall cooperate in the following areas: sustainable and innovative agricultural production systems; healthy and sustainable food systems; health risks (plant health, animal health, "one health" concept); biodiversity and genetic resources for agriculture and food; sustainable territorial development which includes rural employment issues.
Academia and research institutions	Soka University	SP1	2	The two institutions agree on a collaboration to promote knowledge exchange on topics relevant to food security as a way to achieving sustained peace and increasing the implementation of SDGs among youth and students.
Academia and research institutions	LUISS University		2, 12	FAO and LUISS University have agreed on the use of FAO e-learning materials in a Master level course on Food Law as well as the placement of interns in FAO offices.
Academia and research institutions	WorldFish - International Center for Living Aquatic Resources Management		2, 12, 14	The two organizations will work together on improving research for informing global, regional, national policy and implementation in fisheries and aquaculture development, focusing on small-scale fisheries, sustainable aquaculture and improvement of nutritional and economical benefits from fish value chains.
Academia and research institutions	World Maritime University		2, 14	The purpose of this MOU is to provide a framework of cooperation and to facilitate collaboration between the Parties to further their shared goals and objectives in regard to the fisheries and oceans management for the purpose of promoting sustainable and productive oceans.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	Indian Council of Agricultural Research		2	The purpose of this Mou is to provide a framework for cooperation between the Parties with the overall goal of fostering institutional capacity development, technology and experience transfer to other developing countries under the FAO partnership frameworks, in particular the South-South Cooperation Framework (SSC).
Academia and research institutions	International Center for Agricultural Research in the Dry Areas (ICARDA)	SP2	2, 5, 6	This partnership provides a framework for cooperation in the area of sustainable agricultural development, sustainable management of water and land resources, food security, rural livelihoods in NENA region.
Academia and research institutions	International Center for Biosaline Agriculture (ICBA)	SP2	2, 6	ICBA collaborates with FAO to promote and disseminate adapted technologies for sustainable agriculture production through activities to combat desertification and developing water efficiency models, among others.
Academia and research institutions	Asia-Pacific Network for Sustainable Forest Management and Rehabilitation (APFNet)	SP2	15	This partnership provides a framework for cooperation between the parties with the overall goal of developing capacity of the Asia-Pacific region for sustainable forest management. This is facilitated through technical cooperation, trainings, information exchange, effective policy development and implementation, and enhancement of partnerships in areas related to sustainable forest management and rehabilitation.
Academia and research institutions	Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA)	SP1	2	The MoU envisages the following areas of cooperation: provide emergency foot-and-mouth diseases (FMD) reference laboratory services without charge to FAO or to FAO members; comply with the World Organisation for Animal Health standards; type or characterize the FMD virus isolates when available and copy the FAO on the report provided to the country or the submitting authority.

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Academia and research institutions	The Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR)	SP1	2	This partnership envisions the provision of emergency FMD reference laboratory services without charge to FAO or to FAO members; participate in the annual proficiency testing scheme supported by FAO and managed by the Institute for Animal Health, Pirbright, and actively contribute to the improvement of FMD reference laboratory services provided by national laboratories (NL); actively contribute to the OIE/FAO FMD reference laboratory.
Academia and research institutions	the International Centre of Insect Physiology and Ecology (icipe)	SP2	2	This partnership envisions the provision of advice and recommendations on interventions and control measures against vectors and pathogens of African animal trypanosomosis and arthropod-transmitted viral animal pathogens (arboviruses) to FAO and FAO members; identifying vectors of animal African trypanosomoses and arthropod-transmitted viral animal pathogens (arboviruses), and advising on their ecology without charge to FAO or to FAO members; making expertise available to contribute to capacity.
Other	Pan-African Parliament	SP1, SP2, SP3, SP4, SP5	2, 5, 6, 12, 14, 15	This partnership provides a framework for continuing collaboration on activities of common interest when such collaboration is deemed: to position the issue of food security and nutrition at the highest level of the political and legislative agendas in order to achieve the developmental objectives of Africa; and to contribute to a Pan-African Parliament Alliance on Food Security and Nutrition.
Other	Latin American Parliament (Parlatino)	SP1, SP2, SP3, SP4, SP5	2, 5, 6, 12, 14, 15	The aim of this partnership is to promote an exchange of experiences, support and information, so that Latin American national parliaments and subregional and regional parliamentary organizations can address the challenges of food security, right to food, social protection, education, health and agriculture.

Food and Agriculture Organization
of the United Nations

FAO PARTNERSHIPS WITH NON-STATE ACTORS 2018

Type of Partnership	Name of Partner	SP	SDG	Main Objectives
Other	United Nations Volunteers (UNV)	SP1	2	This partnership is aimed at further enhancing cooperation between the two organizations and supporting global citizens, including young women and men, committed to working for a world without hunger. The agreement envisions placement of UN Volunteers in FAO offices around the world.