About the visits

Visit FAO to find out about our work to reach Zero Hunger. Walk through rooms where world leaders have come together to take crucial steps to fight hunger and poverty worldwide. Marvel at the sweeping views of ancient Rome from the top of our building.

- FAO offers group tours – to 15-30 people over 11 years old (and not individual tours).
- Visits last about one hour and a half. They include a guided tour of our most important meeting rooms and of the terrace, which offers panoramic views of ancient Rome.
- Tours start at 10.00 a.m. or 3 p.m.
- Tours are in English but available in other languages as well upon request.
- Please bring your identity document to enter the building. Our staff will welcome you at the entrance, and accompany you throughout your visit.

Did you know?

1. World leaders committed to 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in 2015 and have promised to end hunger by 2030.
2. Although the world produces enough food to feed everyone, around 800 million people suffer from hunger.
3. 1.9 billion people – more than a quarter of the world's population - are overweight.
4. One third of the food produced worldwide is lost or wasted.
5. The world will need to produce 60 percent more food by 2050 to feed a growing population.

About FAO

Reaching Zero Hunger – a world free of hunger and poverty where all people have regular access to enough high-quality food to lead healthy, active lives – has been at the heart of our work. We work mainly in rural areas, in 130 countries, where 80% of the world's poor and hungry live. We support countries to achieve the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals and work towards ending hunger and poverty by 2030.
