

The NADHALI Project

An Innovative Approach to Food Systems

Rome, 29 November 2019

The NADHALI Approach

The NADHALI Project

Objective = support local governments to achieve sustainable and efficient food systems in their municipalities

Where = Nairobi (Kenya), Dhaka (Bangladesh), Lima (Peru)

When = December 2016 – May 2018

How = From a sectorial approach to a systemic one

Funding = project has been funded through FMM with USD 1 million donation

The NADHALI Approach

- Rapid Urban Food Systems Appraisal Tool (RUF SAT)
 - Food Liaison Advisory Group (FLAG)

GLOBAL IMPACT

1. Scale up of Partnerships to mainstream food in Municipal Agendas
2. Additional 15 million USD raised in the 3 countries
3. Expansion to other cities (Peru, Mexico, etc.) and Organizations (GAIN)
4. Training to more than 200 administrators based on NADHALI

The project “Feeding Urbanization: building prosperous small cities and towns”, is currently ongoing, through FAO’s Multi-partner Programme Support Mechanism (FMM)

NAIROBI
CITY COUNTY
— Better City, Better Life —

- The Nairobi Urban Agriculture Promotion and Regulation Act
- Food Systems Strategy
- Additional 2.3 million USD funds raised
- Over 300 people involved, including county extensionists and awarded SMEs
- New “Food and Agriculture” department, for the implementation of the Food Strategy with budget line for Food Systems activities

LOCAL IMPACT

- Urban Food Agenda integrated in National Policies
- Different focus with a number of stakeholders – inter ministerial
- A new 12.5 million USD project started in 2019

MUNICIPALIDAD DE
LIMA

- Partnerships with private sector and civil society
- Over 1000 people directly involved (mostly beneficiaries)
- > 300k USD raised
- A Food Charter/C40 declaration signed
- A Food Systems Strategy
- Sustainable Lima Programme
- 3 composting center
- Strategic Plan for Climate Shocks
- MUFFP 2018 Award
- Campaign “Schools of Life”