

Terms of reference for regional steering committee (Asia Pacific) for the Global action for fall armyworm control

17 June 2020

- establish a regional and sub-regional collaboration platforms on the sustainable management of FAW;
- coordinate the development of improved policies, standards and measures to reduce the risk of further introduction and spread of FAW to non-affected areas and countries;
- coordinate and support APPPC FAW Management efforts, including with relevant working groups established as part of the Steering Committees on IPM and Pesticides;
- involve key partners, such as regional and sub-regional economic organizations (e.g. ASEAN, SAARC);
- support the establishment of National Task Forces and preparation of work plans;
- discuss technical solutions validated at national level;
- ensure the information flow with the FAW Secretariat at Headquarters;
- network between national and global FAW global action plan; and
- prepare a regional data base on FAW.