COUNCIL

Hundred and Forty-first Session

Rome, 11-15 April 2011

Revised Note on the Methods of Work of the Council

Reproduction of document CCLM 92/4

BACKGROUND

1. The Note on the Methods of Work of the Council was originally adopted at the 60th Session of the Council in June 1973, upon a recommendation by the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters (CCLM)¹. The Note remained unchanged until November 2000, when it was updated at the 109th Session of the Council, following its review by the CCLM, as over the years part of its content had become obsolete².
2. Since 1973, the Note has been regularly made available to the Membership at the Council sessions. This practice was discontinued in 2008, pending the revision of the Note to take account of the governance reforms mandated by the Immediate Plan of Action for FAO Renewal (IPA) adopted by the Conference in 2008.
3. At its 36th Session held in 2009, the Conference adopted amendments to the Basic Texts regarding the Council, together with Resolution 8/2009 on the role and functions of the Council, reflecting the reforms introduced by the IPA³.

REVISION OF THE NOTE

4. The Note on the Methods of Work of the Council was therefore revised by the Secretariat, taking into consideration the amended rules relating to the Council and its new operating pattern.
5. The substance of the Note was updated, inter alia, in respect of the functions of the Council, emphasizing its prominent role as the executive organ of the Conference, including on strategic, programme and budget matters. Other changes made to the Note relate to the Council documents, which should be more concise and dispatched in all the languages of the Organization in a timely manner, in accordance with the new cycle of the Governing Body sessions. The Note was also adjusted with regard to the Council reports, which should clearly refer to the conclusions, decisions and recommendations made on matters discussed at the sessions, as called for by the IPA.

6. The draft revised Note was considered by the Open-ended Working Group on measures designed to increase the efficiency of Governing Bodies, including representation (OEWG) at its first meeting held on 13 July 2010. The OEWG recognized that the Note was a useful reference document which required updating to reflect the revised role, functions, practices and ways of working of the Council set out in the IPA. In addition to the changes already made, the OEWG agreed that the revised Note should be further modified to provide for: (i) the Council functions as described in the Basic Texts; (ii) Membership engagement and interaction in the work of the Council, with the Independent Chairperson performing an enhanced facilitation role in the process; (iii) Membership involvement in inter-sessional work, including in agenda setting; (iv) standard formats for Council documents; and (v) information on voting arrangements.

7. The Note was then revised by the Secretariat, in line with the OEWG recommendations, for subsequent review by the CCLM.

8. At its 91st Session in September 2010, the CCLM noted that the working methods of the Council were still under discussion within the OEWG and decided to postpone consideration of the *Note*⁴.

9. At its 140th Session, the Council reviewed the revised Note, proposed amendments thereto, and agreed that it should be further discussed by the OEWG, and then submitted to the CCLM before final review and adoption by Council in April 2011⁵.

10. Following the meeting held by the OEWG on 22 February 2011, and taking into account its recommendations, the Secretariat further revised the Note, the text of which is appended to this document.

SUGGESTED ACTION BY THE COMMITTEE

11. The Committee is invited to review the revised Note on the Methods of Work of the Council and provide such guidance as it deems appropriate.

12. In particular, the Committee is invited to determine whether the revised Note is in line with the relevant provisions of the Basic Texts of the Organization.

13. If the revised Note is found to be consistent with the Basic Texts of the Organization, the Committee may wish to recommend that it be endorsed by the Council at its 141st Session in April 2011.
