

Tea Research Institute of Tanzania Project

Country	The United Republic of Tanzania – Iringa Region
PPP typology	Innovation and technology transfer
Subsector and commodity	Tea
Partnership duration	2006–ongoing
Overall objective	Support tea development and production in Tanzania
Investments	N/A
Public partners	Ministry of Agriculture, Food Security and Co-operatives Role: Finance; Supporting infrastructure Donors Role: Technical support Tea Research Institute of Tanzania (TRIT) Role: Research; Training
Private partners	Tea Producing Estates and Tea Processing Estates Role: Co-finance (based on production)
Intermediaries partners	N/A
Beneficiaries	Tea outgrowers
Main driver of the PPP	Tea Producing Estates
Activities	Provision of a framework for the financing and ownership of research facilities, cost effective research and technology transfer; Generation and dissemination of information on good tea management practices
Results to date/Impacts	• Over 3 000 ha planted; • Increased output (from 3.77 million kg to 16.6 million kg) • Employment generation; • Expanded capacity of existing factories; • Increased price (from TZS 72.5 to TZS 135); • Increased tea quality; • Constructed new factories; • Mitigated risks of prospected collapsed production.

FAO. 2013. Agribusiness public-private partnerships – A country report of the United Republic of Tanzania. Country case studies – Africa. Rome