

IGWG Sessions and Meetings

The FAO Council formally established the Intergovernmental Working Group (IGWG) for the Elaboration of a Set of Voluntary Guidelines to Support the Progressive Realization of the Right to Adequate Food in the Context of National Food Security during its 123rd Session in November 2002.

Since then, the IGWG has held five meetings - its First, Second and Third Sessions, an intersessional meeting of an Open-ended Working Group and its Fourth Session which was held on 23 September 2004. During its Fourth and final session, the IGWG adopted the Voluntary Guidelines and submitted them to the CFS for endorsement and transmission to Council.

IGWG Reports

Documents pertaining to the above meetings are available on the home page of this site.

Other activities

Intersessional activities were undertaken, including case studies and the preparation of information papers, to inform the right-to-food debate. Documents relating to such activities are available on the home page of this site.
