

View from US and Canada

Global Partnerships to Increase Food Security

Common Priorities

- Agricultural research with innovation, adaptation and extension to achieve results oriented agriculture.
- Assistance aligned with Aid Effectiveness and the Rome Principles for food security
  - Comprehensive
  - Country-led
  - Donor coordination
  - Multilateral channel
  - Monitoring & Evaluation

Common Priorities

- Global Agriculture and Food Security Program (GAFSP)
- CGIAR is essential part of global public research
  - Both Canada and U.S. will enhance support
  - Fast track some Mega Programs
  - Core crop improvement, climate and gender platforms.
- CGIAR-Canada Linkage Fund
- International Development Research Centre (IDRC)
- Complimented by research networks in Africa
  - CAADP Pillar IV FARA
  - ASARECA, CORAF, BECA

CIDA's Food Security Strategy

- Research and Development is one of three pillars.
- Canadian International Food Security Research Fund
  - Harness Canadian expertise in partnership with developing countries
  - Respond to country-identified priorities and link to development results

U.S. Food Security Initiative

- 8% of food security for research: doubling
- Global research
  - CGIAR predicated on core productivity results
  - U.S. universities
  - Private sector partnerships
- Multiplied by regional and national investments