

LIVESTOCK NUMBERS

The largest gains in livestock numbers are seen in chickens.

Populations of other categories, including sheeps and goats, also increased in most areas, especially in the developing world.