Access to FAO HQ, security measures

On the first day of the meeting, participants are requested to use the Viale Aventino entrance to FAO, which is above the Circo Massimo metro station. At the Reception Pavilion, at the top of a short flight of steps, they will be invited by Security personnel to proceed through a scanning machine, before being directed to pick up their Building Pass that allows access through the turnstiles into the FAO complex.

Registration will take place on Monday 11 November from 8:30. Participants will be issued with (1) a delegates badge and (2) a pass for the turnstiles at the Building A.

Due to RESTRICTED SECURITY MEASURES all delegates are subject to checks, please carry a valid document on you at all times.

On exiting the compound on the last day of attendance at the meeting, the badge should be deposited in the marked container at the Visitors Centre. Delegates are requested to wear their Building Passes at all times, as access to the FAO Headquarters Complex is prohibited to any individual not in possession of a valid Building Pass. Lost Building Passes should be reported without delay to the FAO Security Office. Delegates are reminded not to leave briefcases or any valuable items unattended in conference rooms.

Visa Requirements

Participants are advised to enquire at the nearest Embassy or Consulate of Italy as soon as possible, to determine whether visas or other documents are required to enter the country. We will assist in any way we can, by providing personal invitation letters to each registered delegate, upon request.

It is the responsibility of delegates to begin the visa application process in a timely manner, and if this is not done well in advance, it may not be possible to obtain a visa in time to attend the meeting.

Slovak Business Centre: Facilities for Delegates

The Slovak Delegates' Lounge has been re-configured for the exclusive use of Permanent Representatives and Delegates attending FAO meetings.

Three CCTV monitors have been installed in the Lounge, allowing Delegates to follow the proceedings in the Red and Green Rooms, as well as the Plenary Hall. Ten work stations, two Desk-phones and one Multifunctional Printer are available in the Lounge.

One FAO staff member is present to assist Permanent Representatives and Delegates, if needed. Delegations are reminded that mobile telephones should be switched off during meetings.

Services at FAO

WI-FI Coverage

FAO offers free Wi-Fi coverage in all meeting rooms and catering areas. Participants with laptops, smartphones or tablet with Wireless Local Area Network (LAN) capabilities, conforming to the 802.11b or 802.11g standards, may use this service, selecting the network “guest_internet”:

The Bookshop is open from 8:00 to 17:30. For more information, please dial extension 53127.

Protecting Your Valuables

A word of caution. International cities that attract many tourists also attract those people who steal from tourists. Consequently, delegates are advised to carry their valuables safely, especially on public transport. There might be pickpockets on the street, on the underground and on buses and trams. Once delegates have checked into their hotels, it is advisable to leave important documents such as passports in the hotel safe and to carry a photocopy. Identity cards, keepsakes and anything else not needed in the city are best left at the hotel or place of residence while delegates are sightseeing, shopping or dining out. Delegates should keep photocopies of all these documents in a safe place in case they need to have them replaced.

Meeting Room

The Session will be held in the King Faisal Room, Building D, Second Floor (D263).

Accommodation in Rome

Please book your room well in advance in order to guarantee your stay.

These hotels have limited available rooms.

In making your booking, please indicate that you are participating in the FAO meeting, as prices quoted are based on FAO negotiated rates.

Getting here

The two main airports in Rome are Leonardo Da Vinci International Airport (Fiumicino airport, 32 km west of Rome) and Ciampino airport (14 km southeast of Rome). See <http://www.adr.it/web/aeroporti-di-roma-en-/pax-fco-fiumicino> for more airport details.

From & To Fiumicino Airport

Trains and Subway to FAO

The Leonardo Express is a non-stop train service which takes you from Fiumicino airport to Termini Station (the main train and subway station in the centre of Rome) in approximately 30 minutes without intermediate stops. The Leonardo Express runs every 30 minutes every day both ways (from Fiumicino to Termini and from Termini to Fiumicino). The first departure from Roma Termini is at 5.35 and from Fiumicino at 6.23. The last departure from the airport is at 23.23 and from Roma Termini at 22.35. You can buy tickets on the web, at the ticket desks, station machines, travel agencies and authorised sales points and a one-way ticket costs Euro 14.

Hold on to your ticket, you will need it to exit turnstiles in Fiumicino Airport station.

From Fiumicino airport you can also take the Trenitalia's FL1 regional train takes you from Leonardo da Vinci Airport to the main train stations in Rome (Trastevere, Ostiense, Tuscolana and Tiburtina). When taking these trains you should get off at Ostiense station. These trains will take approximately 20 minutes from Fiumicino airport to Roma Ostiense and the cost of a one-way ticket is of Euro 8.00 per person.

The Rome Ostiense train station is connected to the Piramide station. Take the Metro B (direction Rebibbia) for one stop to Circo Massimo (you will see the FAO building behind you as you come up the steps). Below is the regular train line from Fiumicino airport.

SIT Bus-Shuttle from Fiumicino Airport to Vatican Area and Termini central (the main train and subway station). The cost of the ticket is 6 Euro on board. The Sit Shuttle busses are parked just outside the airport terminal 3. For more information, please visit the web site <http://www.sitbusshuttle.com>

From Termini Station you can take the Metro Line B (direction Laurentina) for three stops to Circo Massimo. The entrance to FAO is in front of you as you go up the steps from the subway station. Subway tickets can be purchased at a tobacco shop / newspaper kiosk at the Airport and Termini Station and from the automatic machines at the subway stations. Tickets cost 1,50 Euro (these tickets are also valid on buses for a total duration of 75 minutes). For additional information on the Rome public transport system: <http://www.atac.roma.it/>

At Terminals 1, 2, 3 and 5 of "Leonardo da Vinci" airport there is available a taxi service to Rome city center. The cost of the service is Euro 50.00, baggage included, for a maximum of four passengers, for all the destinations inside the city walls which enclose the central area of the city of Rome.

The cost for the service is the same also from Rome to Fiumicino airport.

From & To Ciampino Airport

SIT Bus-Shuttle takes you from Ciampino airport to Termini Station (the main train and subway station). Service is in connection with flights operated by Ryanair, Easy-Jet, Hapag Lloyd Express, Wizz Air, Voli Regionali, My Air, Blue Air, Central Wings and Flyme. A one way ticket cost Euro 6.00 and a round trip ticket cost Euro 8.00. For more information about the shuttle service, visit <http://www.sitbusshuttle.com>

At Ciampino airport, near the exit, there is a taxi service to Rome. The service should cost approximately Euro 30.00, baggage included, for a maximum of four passengers, to all the destinations inside the city walls which enclose the central area of the city of Rome. The cost is the same from Rome to Ciampino.

Taxis

Delegates are advised to use only licensed taxis with meters. Surcharge fares are applied for night runs and on Sundays and holidays. The Main Reception (Ground Floor, Building A) will assist participants in requesting taxis.

Delegates can also call Radio Taxi Service, Tel. 06-3570 or 06-4994. Upon calling, the taxi company operator will ask for the caller's telephone number and will give the caller the taxi's identification number (which will be marked on both sides of the car), as well as the estimated time it will take to reach the caller.

Public Transportation

Tickets for public transport should be purchased in advance and are available from underground stations, tobacco shops and newspaper kiosks.

Tickets cost €1.50 and may be used once for underground transport and unlimited bus travel within the ticket validation time of 75 minutes. Tickets are validated upon entering bus/tram or at the point of entrance to the Metro. There are also day tickets valid for a whole day on the entire bus and metro network.

Bus/Trams

The public buses in Rome are managed by ATAC "Azienda Trasporti Autotranvie del Comune di Roma" and offer service throughout the city. Both buses and trams have electronic displays in the front indicating the number of the route and where they are heading. Access onto buses is both from the rear or front doors. Tickets should be purchased in advance and immediately validated in one of the machines placed on the bus or tram. Bus/tram stops can easily be distinguished by a yellow or white metal post. The Busses which stop by FAO premises are: 3, 60, 75, 160, 271.

For further information on public transportation in Rome (including the routes and schedules of buses and trams), please call: 06-469-54444 or consult the website www.atac.roma.it.

Underground (Metro)

There are two underground lines in Rome called Line A and Line B. The stops are marked by a red metal disk showing a white "M" sign. The Termini Station is the only Metro station where the two lines intersect. The Metro stop for FAO is Circo Massimo. Delegates are reminded that tickets must be purchased before boarding.
