

- FoC

Accessing affected populations in all types of protracted crises situations; access can be particularly problematic in situations of conflict, occupation and terrorism.

- FoC

Respecting, protecting, promoting and facilitating human rights, [and fulfilling] [including] the progressive realization of the right to adequate food in the context of national food security, and respecting [and ensuring respect for] International Humanitarian Law.