

Mainstreaming Gender into forest policies

Bhawana Upadhyay

RECOFTC-The Center for People and Forests

03.11.2013

Objectives

promoting gender equality in the national forest policies of 8 countries

Objectives

strengthening the capacities of policy makers + relevant stakeholders in mainstreaming gender issues in forest policy

Project Activities

- Assessment of integration of gender into forest policy
- Identification of the capacity development needs of key stakeholders
- Development of the training manual

Continue..

- Conduction of the regional + expert workshops on capacity building
- Development + dissemination of the policy briefs + a regional synthesis

Methodology

Context analysis

And

Policy analysis

Key informants and stakeholders interviews

Field visits + direct observation

Country case study

Review, assess + identify integration of gender perspectives

Identify knowledge needs

Review existing capacity development materials on gender issues + analyze gaps

Objective of the workshop improve understanding on existing forest policies with the key focus on gender equality identify key challenges in incorporating gender concerns

Structure of the workshop

Session 1: Knowledge sharing

Country Presentations:

Overview of forest policy + elaboration of policy making process

On-going initiatives on gender mainstreaming in forest policy

Challenges and ways forward..

Session 2: Group discussion

Group discussion + sharing of outputs of group works

Expected outputs

Cross-country learning on the status of gender integration into forest policy

Identification of existing challenges + opportunities in integrating gender perspectives

Detailed report outlining the outcomes + recommendations

Expected outputs

regional synthesis on the integration of gender perspectives into forest policy

country policy briefs

Thank you

<http://www.recoftc.org>

<http://www.recoftc.org/site/Gender/>

