

Sky-high.

The cost of food is climbing fast. People everywhere are affected, and the poorest are hit hardest. Changing weather patterns and rising demand for biofuels are part of the problem. In the search for solutions, let's remember:
food is energy.

www.fao.org

World Food Day
16 October 2008

World Food Security: the Challenges of Climate Change and Bioenergy