

Issued on: 20 October 2017

Deadline For Application: 3 November 2017

JOB TITLE: FOOD SECURITY POLICY MONITORING, ANALYSIS AND DIALOGUE SPECIALIST

TYPE OF CONTRACT: Consultant or PSA.SBS

ORGANIZATIONAL UNIT: AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT ECONOMICS DIVISION (ESA)

DUTY STATION: Various

DURATION: Up to 11 month (with possibility of extension)

FAO seeks gender, geographical and linguistic diversity in its staff and international consultants in order to best serve FAO Members in all regions.

Qualified female applicants and qualified nationals of non-and under-represented member countries are encouraged to apply.

Persons with disabilities are equally encouraged to apply.

All applications will be treated with the strictest confidence.

Organizational Setting

The Agricultural Development Economics Division (ESA) conducts economic research and policy analysis related to all five of the Organization's strategic objectives (food security, sustainable agriculture, poverty reduction, inclusive food systems and resilient livelihoods); ESA provides evidence-based analytical support to national, regional and global policy processes and initiatives related to food security and sustainable agriculture; and leads the production of three FAO flagship publications: The State of Food and Agriculture, The State of Food Security and Nutrition in the World, and World Agriculture Towards 2030/50. ESA also leads large programmes at country level on agricultural policy monitoring, climate change, agribusiness and food value chains, and food security information and analysis in support of national policies.

FAO International Consultants and Call purpose

The Organization frequently engages experts to work on short-term activities and projects as international consultants or under personal service agreements (PSA.SBS) at various levels of experience (see minimum requirements below). International consultants or PSAs are engaged by the Organization to provide expertise, skills or knowledge for the performance of a specific task or piece of work, which is short-term by nature. The assignment may involve full-time or part-time functions, with duration ranging from 1 month up to 11 months. The possibility of extension is subject to satisfactory performance and depends on the availability of resources and needs of the Organization. Assignments can require travel or missions/appointment to field locations.

Individuals meeting or exceeding the requirements of the Call, determined through an interview process, will be included in the ESA Divisional Roster. Experts who are registered in the Roster are available for consideration for a period of up to 48 months. ESA Division will use this roster as the primary mechanism to resource future vacancies within the technical requirements covered by the Call.

Reporting Lines

Selected applicants will work under the overall guidance of the Division Director and the direct supervision of Team Leaders/Officers, working in close collaboration with other FAO Divisions, Strategic Programmes and external partners as required. When activities are carried out in member countries, applicants will be required to work in close collaboration with the FAO Representation in the relevant country of assignment, as well as the relevant FAO regional and/or sub-regional office.

Technical Focus

Food Security and Nutrition policy monitoring, analysis, research and dialogue.

Tasks and responsibilities

The assigned tasks and responsibilities related to this area of work can include the following:

- Coordinate and manage the collection, review and validation of country policy information related to food and agriculture
- Monitor national and regional policies and frameworks and analyse policy trends, country experiences and emerging issues related to agriculture, food security and nutrition.
- Prepare and update analytical and policy briefs for selected countries or themes.
- Conduct research and data analysis and contribute to drafting thematic documents and reports related to food security and nutrition.
- Ensure coordination and alignment of the policy collection, monitoring and analysis across countries and regions
- Liaise with FAO Regional Offices and contribute to policy reviews and analysis inputs for the annual Regional Overview of Food Security and Nutrition Reports.
