

FAO Office of Evaluation

Evaluation of FAO's cooperation with Brazil 2002-2010

Annex 2-Team members

Dr Timothy Finan, US national, team leader, holds a PhD in Anthropology at the University of Arizona, where he has been teaching for more than 30 years. A large portion of his research and work has been carried out in the north-east of Brazil, but he has a wide experience in most regions of the world as well. He worked as a consultant for several UN agencies, governments and bilateral donors.

Ms Tullia Aiazzi, Italian, Senior Evaluation Officer and Evaluation Manager, joined FAO Office of Evaluation in 2003. She holds a MSc in Agricultural and Rural Development and has more than 20 years of professional experience in rural development, including institutional, social and gender issues.

Mrs Liviam Cordero Beluschi, Brazilian, holds a Master in Ecology of AgroSystems and has more than 10 years of experience in the areas of forestry development, environmental impact studies and agricultural biodiversity. She had previously collaborated as a consultant with FAO Regional office for Latin America, EMBRAPA and WWF.

Mr Franco Franchini, Italian, worked for more than 30 years in FAO administration, finance and operations. He has been OED consultants for his area of expertise since 2007, as team member of the Honduras and India country evaluations and of the Evaluation of PCA-Norway. He carried out the analysis of the NEX modality in the India country evaluation.

Dr Sebastião Kengen, Brazilian, holds a PhD in Forestry Economics at the Australian National University and has more than 30 years of experience in the field of forestry development. He worked for more than 10 years with IBAMA in Brazil and with several international institutions, including FAO.

Mr Carlos Alberto M. Lima dos Santos, Brazilian, holds a Master in Science in Food Science and Microbiology and has 40 years of international professional experience in the fields of fish handling and processing technology. He worked for FAO, WHO, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro and the Brazilian Ministry of Agriculture.

Mr Fabio Sampaio Vianna Ramos Filho, Brazilian, holds a master in Development, Agriculture and Society. He has 20 years of professional experience, of which 10 at the international level in sustainable agricultural production, with a focus on livestock production. He collaborated with several governmental institutions and has been the CEO of a company providing consultancy in the agricultural sector and agribusiness for 10 years.

Dr Francisco Bendrau Sarmento, Portuguese-Angolan, holds a PhD at UFRRJ and a Pos Doc at the University of Coimbra on International Food Governance. He has more than 20 years of professional experience in the field of agrarian reform and food security. He worked with FAO, Action Aid and other donors.

Dr Emilia Venetsanu, Greek and Italian national, has a PhD in Philosophy and a Post graduate on "Food Security and Social Protection". She has 25 years of experience in international development with a strong focus on human rights, including Right to Food, community and civil society development, especially in rural context. She worked in projects funded by governments, NGOs and several multilateral and bilateral donors.

Ms Beatrice Gerli, Italian, holds a MSc in Economics and Management, specializing in development policies and public-private partnerships. She has worked for the UN system in Latin America, and for the EC. She joined the FAO Office of Evaluation in 2010 as a research assistant.