

Asia-Pacific Forestry Week 2016

Thematic Stream 1: "Pathways to Prosperity: Future Trade and Markets"

Session 3.6: Public/Government Procurement Policies for Certified Forest Products in the Asia Pacific Region

*Reno Plenary Hall, Widus Hotel
9:00-10:30, 26 February 2016*

NOTE CHANGE OF TIME

- Moderator: Mr. Lu Wenming, Professor and Director, Division of International Cooperation, Chinese Academy of Forestry

Programme Agenda

- 09:00-09:10: Welcome and introduction
- 09:10-09:30: Public/Government Procurement Policy for Certified/Legally Sourced Timber in Japan, by Mr. Haruyoshi Takeuchi, Director, PEFC Asia Promotions Initiative, Japan
- 09:30-09:50: Government Procurement Policy for Certified Forest Products in New Zealand, by Ms. Hu Yanjie, Associate Professor, Research Institute of Forestry Policy and Information, Chinese Academy of Forestry
- 09:50-10:10: Feasibility of China's Government Procurement Policy for Certified Forest Products and Its Road Map, by Mr. Lu Wenming, Professor and Director, Division of International Cooperation, Chinese Academy of Forestry
- 10:10-10:30: Panel discussion and questions/answers

This session will feature presentations and updates on the implementation of the public/government procurement policies for certified/legally sourced timber in Japan and New Zealand, and likely adopted China's government procurement policy for certified forest products and its road map.