

CONVENTION FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FISHERY COMMITTEE FOR THE WEST CENTRAL GULF OF GUINEA

The Contracting Parties,

Considering the UN Law of the Sea Convention, signed on December 10, 1982, particularly its stipulations encouraging the conclusion of regional and sub-regional agreements for cooperation in the fishery sector,

Considering also the Abidjan Ministerial Declaration dated July 18, 2006, relating to the establishment of the sub-regional fisheries committee for West Central Gulf of Guinea,

Mindful of the common problems that face the countries of the sub-region in their struggle for development, and recognizing the opportunities presented by the rational and sustainable exploitation of their fisheries resources for developing their economies and for meeting the nutritional needs of their populations,

Aware of the need for cooperation and common policies among the coastal countries in the preservation, conservation and management of fishery resources of the West Central Gulf of Guinea and the need for cooperation in the development of their national fisheries industries,

Recognizing existing frameworks for fisheries cooperation in the West African region, with particular reference to the Fishery Committee for the Eastern Central Atlantic (CECAF), the Ministerial Conference on Fisheries Cooperation among African States bordering the Atlantic Ocean (ATLAFCO), the International Commission for the Conservation of Atlantic Tunas (ICCAT) and the African Continental Fisheries and Aquaculture Committee (CFAC),

Recognizing the FAO Code of Conduct for Responsible Fisheries as the appropriate normative reference to deal with a number of critical issues with which the States of the West Central Gulf of Guinea are faced in the management and development of their fisheries, such as over-fishing and overcapacity in fisheries, prevention, deterrence and elimination of illegal, unreported and unregulated fishing, development of sustainable aquaculture (CFAC), improvement of the livelihoods of small scale fishers and processors,

Have agreed as follows:

PART 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

Use of terms

“Contracting Parties” shall mean the States that have become a Party to the Convention for the Establishment of the Fishery Committee for the West Central Gulf of Guinea in accordance with article 15 of this Convention;

“1982 Convention” shall mean the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea of 10 December 1982;

“Ministers” shall mean the Ministers in charge of fisheries in the Committee member States.

“The Committee” shall mean the Fisheries Committee for the West Central of Gulf of Guinea.

Article 2

Scope of application

1. The scope of application of this Convention comprises all marine waters under national jurisdiction of the Contracting Parties.
2. This Convention shall apply to all living marine resources, without prejudice to the management responsibilities and authorities of other competent fisheries management organizations or arrangements in the area.

Article 3

Recognition of coastal state's rights, jurisdiction and duties

Nothing in this Convention shall be construed as prejudicing the rights, jurisdiction and duties of the coastal State under the 1982 Convention, particularly, as reflected in its article 56. This Convention shall be interpreted and applied in the context of and in a manner consistent with the 1982 Convention.
