

Arne Eggereide

Employment:

The Norwegian Directorate for Nature Management 1979-1983 and 1984-2013: Salmon and inland fisheries management; adviser, project coordinator, head of division, head of section. Current position: Project coordinator for national and international cooperation related to freshwater fisheries management.

The County Governor of Sogn og Fjordane 1983-1984: Freshwater Fisheries, adviser.

University of Trondheim 1984 – 1990: Limnology, lecturer.

Higher education:

University of Oslo 1970-1978:

- Can. real. Limnology; Thesis: Phosphorus turnover in a small lake.
- Subsidiary subject at the elementary level; Sociology.

Experience from national committees etc.:

Member of different program boards at The Research Council of Norway, Member of Norwegian Ministry of Fisheries' Council for Marine Fisheries Regulations, Member of The Wild Salmon Committee, etc.

Experience from international cooperation:

Delegate and head of delegation to NASCO, member of The International Salmon Research Board (NASCO), member of Management Committee, focal point and head of delegation to EIFAAC, head of delegation to OSPAR Biodiversity Committee, delegate to negotiations with Finland about salmon fisheries in River Teno, etc.