

Asia-Pacific Forestry Week Photo Contest

Win a trip to Hanoi to attend the Asia-Pacific Forestry Week !!

The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) is launching a photo competition for the Asia-Pacific Forestry Week (APFW), to be held in Hanoi, Vietnam, 21-26 April 2008.

Rules

The competition is open to ALL photographers at least 18 years of age. We are looking for striking images of forests and forestry from the Asia-Pacific region. Photos will be evaluated according to how well they depict forests and trees and their place in people's lives, conceptually and artistically. A panel of foresters and photographers will select the best photos for display during the Asia-Pacific Forestry Week in Hanoi.

The winning photographer will be invited to attend APFW in Hanoi, Vietnam. Selected photos will be published on the FAO Forestry website and in other FAO publications.

The entrants must be citizens or residents of one of the Asia-Pacific countries

The photos should be submitted by 1 April 2008. Entrants must have full copyright to pictures submitted, which they must be able to certify if requested. Photos submitted to the contest will not be returned. Submissions received will not be acknowledged. The winner will be informed on 7 April 2008. The competition is not open to FAO staff or family members.

Participation

Each entrant can submit a maximum of five (5) photos. The photos may be in black and white or colour. Digitally manipulated photos are acceptable.

Send photos in prints, 8 x 10 inches (20 x 25 cm) in size, accompanied by negatives or high resolution (at least 300 dpi) digital images on a CD-ROM. Please mail your entries to:

Mr. Kenichi Shono
FAO Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific
39 Phra Atit Road, Bangkok 10200, Thailand

By entering this competition, contestants agree to the entry rules stated herein. All decisions by the Contest Judges will be final.
