For further information please refer to the technical report prepared by N.Wazen and B.Fady “Geographic distribution of 24 major tree species in the Mediterranean and their genetic resources” in the framework of the Component 1 of the project “Maximize the production of goods and services of Mediterranean forest ecosystems in the context of global changes. First published online on August 2015.