

Meeting on:

“The Contribution of Education for Rural People (ERP)
to the Millennium Development Goals.
Results from case studies in Senegal, Chad, Tanzania, Bolivia and Chile”

31 May 2005, 10.30–15.30 hrs.
Rome, FAO Hq, Mexico Room, D-211

AGENDA

10.00-10.30: Registrations

10.30-10.40: Welcome remarks and the ERP context (FAO and ERP partnership)

10.40-10.50: Introduction (Ada Civitani, Head of Education Unit, NGO ACRA)

10.50-11.00: Presentation of the participants

11.00-11.40: Results and lessons learned from the case studies in Chad, Tanzania, Bolivia and Chile (Andrea Mazzilli, Overall Study Coordinator)

11.40-12.00: Early Childhood and Primary Education in Casemance, Senegal
(Francesca Moledda, Study Coordinator in Senegal)

12.00-12.20: ERP and local sustainable development a contribution from CONGAD (Mr Malamine Tamba, Executive Director of CONGAD)

12.20-12.40: The importance of the involvement of school communities
(Mr Babacar Arona Sane, President of the NGO Kalounayes pour le développement Economique et Social, KDES, teacher of the primary school of Koubanao; Mr Malamine Badji, member of KDES and teacher of the primary school of Koubanao, Senegal)

12.40-13.00: Questions and answers

13.00-14.00: Lunch (free)

14.00-14.45: Open floor: comments and discussion

14.45-15.15: Planning and follow-up

15.15-15.30: Synthesis and conclusions