Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations

Columbia Center on Sustainable Investment
A JOINT CENTER OF COLUMBIA LAW SCHOOL
AND THE EARTH INSTITUTE, COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

Creating an enabling environment for responsible investment in agriculture and food systems - Reform

©FAO/Fanelli Giulia

This course, which is part of a series of three, provides guidance on driving reforms that strengthen policy, legal, regulatory and institutional frameworks for responsible agricultural investment (RAI). Specifically, the course provides support to design the reform strategy, establish multi-stakeholder consultation processes for decision-making and enhance the role of regulatory processes in creating an enabling environment for responsible agricultural investment.

🕐 1.5 hours

🌐 Available in English and French

You will learn about

- The main decisions to make about the overall approach of a reform strategy and its key elements.
- The steps for establishing gender- and young- sensitive multi-stakeholder platforms.
- The role that regulatory processes play in implementing policies and laws that promote and facilitate responsible agricultural investment.

Who is the course for?

This course is primarily intended for those who play a role in creating an enabling environment for responsible investment in agriculture and food systems. Target audience includes:

- Policy makers and parliamentarians.
- Government technical staff.
- Members of small-scale producer organizations.
- Members of civil society organizations.

Key partners

This course was developed by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) in the context of the FAO Umbrella Programme "Supporting Responsible Investment in Agriculture and Food Systems".

Contributing organizations:

Columbia Center on Sustainable Investment (CCSI).

International Institute for Environment and Development (IIED).

FAO ⓔlearning Academy

This course is available through the FAO ⓔlearning Academy.

Please visit the Academy and browse our extensive catalogue in multiple languages. Register once to access over 100 titles.

All courses are available as a global public good for free.

How to access the course

1. Go to the e-learning Academy: elearning.fao.org
2. Register and log-in with your user name and password

[☺] Registration is fast and easy

FAO ⓔlearning Academy: elearning.fao.org