¹ The identification of possible developing countries to be supported is defined in coordination between the host country and the FAO Secretariat, considering economic parameters of fish exports and imports, balanced geographic distribution, and minimum participation of LDCs and SIDS.

² The indicated cost refers only to countries supported through FAO.

³ Support provided to selected developing countries by the host country through FAO. In this case, the supported developing country cost is included in the total contribution received by FAO from the host country to conduct the session.

⁴ Support provided directly by the host country to selected developing countries with no cost information available.
