Executive Summary

The 93rd Session of the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters (CCLM) endorsed Mediation Rules as well as consequential amendments to the Third Party Beneficiary (TPB) Procedures set out in Appendices I and II to this Report, in connection with the exercise of functions as TPB by FAO under the International Treaty on Plant Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture.

The CCLM also recalled its deliberations, as well as those of the Council concerning the specific nature of its work and modus operandi.  - Ms Mónica Martínez Menduño (Ecuador)
 - Mr Jarlath O'Connor (Ireland)
 - Mr Lawrence Kuna Kalinoe (Papua New Guinea)
 - Mr Ammar Awad (Syrian Arab Republic)
 - Mr Gregory Groth (United States of America)
 - Ms Kampamba Pam Mwananshiku (Zambia)
3. The Committee elected Mr Jarlath O'Connor (Ireland) as Vice-Chairperson.

International Treaty on Plant Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture - Mediation Rules for the Effective Functioning of the Third Party

4. The CCLM examined document CCLM 93/2 entitled "International Treaty on Plant Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture – Mediation Rules for the effective functioning of the third party beneficiary procedures" referred to it as a follow-up to a matter which had already been considered at a previous CCLM session.
5. The CCLM noted that the International Treaty on Plant Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture, concluded under Article XIV of the Constitution, established a Multilateral System of Access and Benefit-sharing to facilitate access to plant genetic resources for food and agriculture and share, in a fair and equitable way, the benefits arising from the utilization of these resources. The system covered the plant genetic resources listed in Annex I to the Treaty, established according to criteria of food security and interdependence and which were under the management and control of the Contracting Parties and in the public domain. Facilitated access and benefit-sharing were provided pursuant to a "Standard Material Transfer Agreement" (SMTA), a contract approved by the Governing Body of the Treaty, containing a number of terms and conditions applicable to individuals or legal entities within the territory of the Contracting Parties to the Treaty. Under the SMTA, the parties to the contract agree that an entity designated by the Governing Body of the Treaty act as Third Party Beneficiary. The Third Party Beneficiary is an entity that represents the interests of the Governing Body of the Treaty in the execution of the contractual obligations of the SMTA. At its first session, in 2006, the Governing Body of the Treaty requested FAO to act as Third Party Beneficiary. FAO accepted the invitation, and the Governing Body of the Treaty, at its third session, approved procedures to guide FAO in the exercise of the functions of Third Party Beneficiary under the SMTA. These procedures, now fully operational, were reviewed and endorsed by the CCLM in September 2009 and by the Council in October 2009.
6. When approving the Third Party Beneficiary Procedures, at its third session in 2009, the Governing Body requested its Secretary to develop "operational guidelines for the commencement and management of amicable dispute resolution and mediation proceedings under the Third Party

Beneficiary Procedures in order to promote the effective functioning of the Third Party Beneficiary, which shall include appropriate cost containment measures.”

7. The operational guidelines were developed by an Ad Hoc Third Party Beneficiary Committee established by the Governing Body of the Treaty. At its fourth session, the Governing Body of the Treaty endorsed the work of the Committee and approved the guidelines in the form of Mediation Rules accompanying the Third Party Beneficiary Procedures, as well as a consequential amendment to the Procedures, which were before the CCLM.

8. The CCLM noted that the Mediation Rules improved the procedures aimed at protecting the status of FAO, especially its immunity from every form of jurisdiction, as well as any possible financial liability for FAO arising out of the exercise of its role. The SMTA established a flexible system of progressive escalation for dispute settlement involving amicable negotiations and mediation, prior to recourse to arbitration. The Mediation Rules reinforced the flexibility and efficiency of the overall system as successful mediation would contribute to further reducing costs and improved the Third Party Beneficiary Procedures in light of the deliberations previously made by the CCLM.

9. The CCLM also noted that the Governing Body of the Treaty had requested the WIPO Arbitration and Mediation Center – which has considerable experience in administering mediation procedures – to act as Administrator of the Mediation Rules. Such an arrangement would relieve FAO of the administrative burden connected to that role, at competitive costs.

10. The CCLM endorsed the Mediation Rules set out in Appendix I to this report and the consequential amendment to the Third Party Beneficiary Procedures set out in Appendix II hereto.

Multi-year Programme of Work for the CCLM

11. The CCLM examined document CCLM 93/4 “Multi-year programme of work for the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters”. The CCLM noted that both the CCLM and the Council had already discussed the matter in 2010. In September 2010, the CCLM noted that it held sessions to consider items referred to it by the Council or the Director-General as need arose and that there were no standing items on its agenda to be examined at pre-established dates. The CCLM was generally of the view that it would not be possible for it to establish a work programme in the same manner as other committees. Notwithstanding this, the CCLM decided to keep the issue under review but recommended to the Council that the distinctive features of the modus operandi of the CCLM be duly taken into account. In October 2010, the Council concurred with the view of the CCLM that its Multi-year Programme of Work had to take account of distinct features of the functions of the Committee as per Rule XXXIV, paragraph 7 of the General Rules of the Organization, as the CCLM held sessions to consider items referred to it as necessary and, in general, there were no standing or recurrent items on its agenda. The Council noted that the CCLM intended to keep the matter under review at its future sessions.

12. The CCLM examined a revised draft Multi-year Programme of Work 2012-15 proposed by the Secretariat taking into account the above guidance of the Council and the characteristics of the Multi-Year Programmes of Work of the other committees, with particular reference to the Programme and Finance Committees. The Multi-year Programme of Work 2012-15 contained an outline of the overall objectives and mandate of the Committee and proposed working methods and practices which the Committee would seek to implement throughout the biennium. The CCLM noted, as evidenced by some examples provided in the discussions, that these working methods and practices must take into account the distinct features of the Committee.

13. Following an exchange of views on the relationship between the work of the CCLM and other Governing and Statutory Bodies of the Organization, the Committee approved the Multi-year Programme of Work 2012-15, attached hereto as Appendix III, and decided to forward it to the Council for endorsement.

14. The Committee recommended that there should be a mechanism allowing for the CCLM to be involved in joint meetings of the Programme and Finance Committees, whenever necessary, and subject to availability of funds.

15. The CCLM expressed its readiness to continue to examine the issue of the adjustment of the Multi-year Programme of Work 2012-15 to its particular situation.

Appointment of External Members of the Ethics Committee

16. The CCLM reviewed document CCLM 93/3 “Appointment of External Members of the Ethics Committee”. The CCLM noted that the Ethics Committee would include, in addition to two internal members, three reputable individuals external to FAO, appointed by the Director-General, whose nominations would be approved by the Council, upon recommendation by the CCLM and the Finance Committee. The CCLM further noted that the Director-General had submitted six candidates for the three positions of external members, together with their respective curricula vitae.

17. The CCLM considered, first, that it would be useful to establish criteria in the light of which the nominations would be examined. In that context, the CCLM identified the following criteria: (i) no former officials of FAO; (ii) desirability of avoiding candidates serving, or having served with other United Nations Rome-based organizations; (iii) knowledge of, and experience in ethics, in the United Nations System; (iv) gender balance; (v) regional balance; (vi) usefulness of experience from the private sector and academia.

18. The CCLM recommended to the Council the following three candidates for the external positions in the Ethics Committee:

Mr Ngonlardje Kabra Mbaidjol (Chad)

Ms Anne Marie Taylor (Canada, France, USA)

Mr José Zalaquett (Chile)

19. The CCLM recommended that for the next renewal of the external membership of the Committee the procedures for the nomination of candidates be improved. In this connection, the CCLM underlined that only one nationality should be recognized in the case of candidates holding more than one nationality, in line with the practice followed for office holders in intergovernmental organizations. The CCLM further recommended that the Director-General should propose at least seven candidates for the three positions, i.e. one candidate from each of the FAO geographic regions. Finally, the Committee recommended that the proposals should be gender balanced.

Other Matters

20. There were no other matters.

If they choose mediation, they may agree that the mediation shall be carried out in accordance with these Mediation Rules, which are administered by [the entity designated by the Governing Body] (“the Administrator”).

Article 2Request for Mediation

(a) Either party to the Standard Material Transfer Agreement or the Third Party Beneficiary may file a Request for Mediation with the Administrator.

(a) A party to the Standard Material Transfer Agreement or the Third Party Beneficiary accepting mediation under these Mediation Rules shall sign the Acceptance of Mediation and return it to the Administrator.

(b) The parties to the mediation (“the Party” or the “Parties”)¹ are the parties to the Standard Material Transfer Agreement, and the Third Party Beneficiary that accept mediation in accordance with paragraph (a) of this Article.

(c) A party to the Standard Material Transfer Agreement that is not a Party to the mediation, in accordance with paragraph (b) of this Article, shall not be privy to any information, notifications or documents in the context of the mediation, if such mediation is held.

Article 4

Commencement of Mediation

(a) Mediation shall commence on receipt of signed copies of the Acceptance of Mediation from the Parties, provided that such signed copies of the Acceptance of Mediation are received by the Administrator within thirty (30) days of the transmission by the Administrator of the documents in accordance with Article 2c of these Mediation Rules.

(b) On commencement of mediation, the Administrator shall consult with the Parties, in order to agree on the place of mediation, and the language to be used in mediation.

Article 5

Notices and Periods of Time

(a) Any notice or other communication that may or is required to be given under these Mediation Rules shall be in writing and shall be delivered by expedited postal or courier service, or transmitted by telefax, e-mail or other means of telecommunication that provide a record thereof.

(b) The address of the Administrator is provided in Annex 2 to these Mediation Rules and may be changed at the discretion of the Administrator.

¹ For the purposes of these Mediation Rules, the terms “Party” or “Parties” are used to refer only to parties to the mediation and not a party or the parties to the Standard Material Transfer Agreement or a Contracting Party to the Treaty.

(c) A Party's last known residence or place of business shall be a valid address for the purpose of any notice or other communication in the absence of any notification of a change by that Party. (f) For the purpose of calculating a period of time under these Mediation Rules, such period shall begin to run on the day following the day when a notice or other communication is received. If the last day of such period is an official holiday or a non-business day at the residence or place of business of the addressee, the period is extended until the first business day that follows. Official holidays or non-business days occurring during the running of the period of time are included in calculating the period.

(a) If the Parties agree within seven (7) days of the commencement of the mediation on the person of the mediator, or have agreed on another appointment procedure, the Administrator shall appoint any mediator so selected, after confirming the requirements of Articles 8 and 9.

(b) If the Parties cannot agree within seven (7) days of the commencement of the mediation on the person of the mediator, or have not agreed on another appointment procedure, the mediator shall be appointed in accordance with the following procedure:

(i) The Administrator shall as soon as possible send to each Party an identical list of candidates, selected from the list of experts established by the Governing Body in accordance with Article 8.4 c) of the Standard Material Transfer Agreement. Where possible, the list shall comprise the names of at least three candidates in alphabetical order. The list shall include or be accompanied by a statement of each candidate's qualifications. If the Parties have agreed on any particular qualifications, the list shall contain only the names of candidates that satisfy those qualifications.

(ii) Each Party shall have the right to delete the name of any candidate or candidates to whose appointment it objects and shall number any remaining candidates in order of preference.

(iii) Each Party shall return the marked list to the Administrator (without obligation to send a copy to the other Party or Parties) within seven (7) days after the date on which the list is received by it. Any Party failing to return a marked list within that period of time shall be deemed to have assented to all candidates appearing on the list.

(iv) Upon receipt by it of the lists from the Parties, the Administrator shall, taking into account the preferences and objections expressed by the Parties, invite a person from the list to be the mediator.

(v) If the lists that have been returned do not show a person who is acceptable as mediator to all Parties, the Administrator shall be authorized to appoint the mediator. The Administrator shall similarly be authorized to do so if a person is not able or does not wish to accept the Administrator's invitation to be the mediator, or if there appear to be other reasons precluding that person from being the mediator, and there does not remain on the lists a person who is acceptable as mediator to each Party.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (b), the Administrator shall be authorized to appoint the mediator, from the list mentioned in paragraph (b) (i) above, if it determines in its discretion that the procedure described in that paragraph is not appropriate for the case.

Article 7

Nationality of the Mediator

- (a) An agreement of the Parties concerning the nationality of the mediator shall be respected.
- (b) If the Parties have not agreed on the nationality of the mediator, such mediator shall, in the absence of special circumstances such as the need to appoint a person having particular qualifications, be a national of a country other than the countries of the Parties, if different.

Article 8

Impartiality and Independence

- (a) The mediator shall be impartial and independent.
- (b) The prospective mediator shall, before accepting appointment, disclose to the Parties and the Administrator any circumstances that might give rise to justifiable doubt as to the mediator's impartiality or independence, or confirm in writing that no such circumstances exist.
- (c) If, at any stage during the mediation, new circumstances arise that might give rise to justifiable doubt as to the mediator's impartiality or independence, the mediator shall promptly disclose such circumstances to the Parties and the Administrator.

Article 9

Availability, Acceptance and Notification

- (a) The mediator shall, by accepting appointment, be deemed to have undertaken to make available sufficient time to enable the mediation to be conducted and completed expeditiously.

- (c) The Administrator shall notify the Parties of the appointment of the mediator.

Article 10

Article 11

Conduct of the Mediation

- (a) The mediation shall be conducted in the manner agreed by the Parties. If, and to the extent that, the Parties have not made such agreement, the mediator shall, in accordance with these Mediation Rules, determine the manner in which the mediation shall be conducted.
- (b) If at any stage of the mediation, the Parties so agree, the mediator shall provide an evaluation of the dispute. Such evaluation may take the form of a written document, which the Parties are free to accept or reject as the settlement of the dispute.
- (c) Each Party shall cooperate in good faith with the mediator to advance the mediation as expeditiously as possible.
- (d) The mediator shall be free to meet and to communicate separately with a Party on the clear understanding that information given at such meetings and in such communications shall not be disclosed to the other Party or Parties without the express authorization of the Party giving the information.

(e) As soon as possible after being appointed, the mediator shall, in consultation with the Parties, establish a timetable for the submission by each Party to the mediator and to the other Party or Parties of a statement summarizing the background of the dispute, the Party's interests and contentions in relation to the dispute and the present status of the dispute, together with such other information and materials as the Party considers necessary for the purposes of the mediation and, in particular, to enable the issues in dispute to be identified.

(f) The mediator may at any time during the mediation suggest that a Party provide such additional information or materials as the mediator deems useful.

(g) Any Party may at any time submit to the mediator, for consideration by the mediator only, written information or materials that it considers to be confidential. The mediator shall not, without the written authorization of that Party, disclose such information or materials to the other Party or Parties.

Article 12

Role of the Mediator

(a) The mediator shall promote the settlement of the issues in dispute between the Parties in any manner that the mediator believes to be appropriate, but shall have no authority to impose a settlement on the Parties.

(b) The mediator or a Party to the dispute may propose that one or more independent experts be consulted to report on specific issues. Terms of reference should be established for such expert in consultation between the mediator and the Parties. Any such experts shall be required to sign an appropriate confidentiality undertaking in accordance with Article 16 of these Mediation Rules.

Article 13

Termination of the Mediation

The mediation shall be terminated within six months of the commencement of mediation, or any shorter period of time agreed on by the Parties. The mediation shall be terminated by the following means:

(i) by the signing of a Settlement Agreement by the Parties covering any or all of the issues in dispute between the Parties;

(ii) by the decision of the mediator if, in the mediator's judgment, further efforts at mediation are unlikely to lead to a resolution of the dispute; or

(iii) by a written declaration of a Party at any time sent to the other Party or Parties, the Administrator and the mediator.

Article 14

Mediation Termination Notices

Upon the termination of the mediation, the mediator shall promptly send to the Administrator a Mediation Termination Notice in writing, indicating that the mediation is terminated and shall indicate the date on which it terminated, whether or not the mediation resulted in a settlement of the dispute and, if so, whether the settlement was full or partial. The mediator shall send to the Parties a copy of the notice so addressed to the Administrator.

Article 15

Dispute Resolution Termination Notice

If the Mediation Termination Notice indicates that the Parties reached a settlement, the Administrator shall send a Dispute Resolution Termination Notice to the other Party or Parties, terminating the dispute resolution process.

Article 16

Confidentiality

- (a) No recording of any kind shall be made of any meetings of the Parties.
- (b) Each person involved in the mediation, including, in particular, the mediator, the Parties and their representatives and advisors, any independent experts, and any other persons present during the meetings of the Parties with the mediator, shall respect the confidentiality of the mediation and may not, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties and the mediator, use or disclose to any outside party any information concerning, or obtained in the course of, the mediation. Each such person shall sign an appropriate confidentiality undertaking prior to taking part in the mediation.
- (c) Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties, each person involved in the mediation shall, on the termination of the mediation, return, to the Party providing it, any brief, document or other materials supplied by a Party, without retaining any copy thereof. Any notes taken by a person concerning the meetings of the Parties with the mediator shall be destroyed on the termination of the mediation.

 - (i) any views expressed or suggestions made by the other Party or Parties with respect to a possible settlement of the dispute;
 - (ii) any admissions and statements made by a Party in the course of the mediation;
 - (iii) any proposals made or views expressed by the mediator;

(iv) any evaluation of the dispute made by the mediator, pursuant to Article 11b of these Mediation Rules, or any parts or contents thereof;

(v) the fact that a Party had or had not indicated willingness to accept any proposal for settlement made by the mediator or by the other Party or Parties.

(e) The Administrator, the mediator and the Third Party Beneficiary shall keep any Mediation Termination Notice, Dispute Resolution Notice, and Settlement Agreement confidential and shall not, without the written authorization of the Parties, disclose either the existence or the result of the mediation to any person, except where its disclosure is necessary for purposes of implementation and enforcement.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (e) of this Article, the Administrator may, however, include information concerning the mediation in any aggregate statistical data that it publishes concerning its activities, provided that such information does not reveal the identity of the Parties or enable the particular circumstances of the dispute to be identified.

(g) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (e) of this Article, the Third Party Beneficiary may, however, include information concerning the mediation in its report to a session of the Governing Body of the International Treaty on Plant Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture, pursuant to Article 9, Reporting, of the Third Party Beneficiary Procedures, provided that such information does not reveal the identity of the Parties or enable the particular circumstances of the dispute to be identified.

Article 17

Role of the Mediator in Pending or Future Proceedings

Unless required by a court of law or authorized in writing by the Parties, the mediator shall not act in any capacity whatsoever, otherwise than as a mediator, in any pending or future proceedings, whether judicial, arbitral or otherwise, relating to the subject matter dealt with in the mediation proceedings.

Article 18

Administration Fee

(a) The Request for Mediation shall be subject to the payment to the Administrator of an administration fee, the amount of which shall be fixed in accordance with the Schedule of Fees applicable on the date of the Request for Mediation, when they are sent to the Parties, pursuant to Article 2(c) of these Mediation Rules.

(b) The administration fee shall not be refundable.

(c) No action shall be taken by the Administrator on a Request for Mediation until the administration fee has been paid.

(d) If a Party who has filed a Request for Mediation fails, within seven (7) days after a reminder (normally to be sent within 3 weeks of the receipt of the request for mediation) in writing from the Administrator, to pay the administration fee, it shall be deemed to have withdrawn its Request for Mediation.

Article 19

Fees of the Mediator

(a) The amount and currency of the fees of the mediator and the modalities and timing of their payment shall be fixed by the Administrator, after consultation with the mediator and the Parties.

(b) The amount of the fees shall, unless the Parties and the mediator agree otherwise, be calculated on the basis of the hourly indicative rate set out in the Schedule of Fees applicable on the date of the Request for Mediation in accordance with Article 20(a) of these Mediation Rules, and taking into account the amount in dispute, the complexity of the subject matter of the dispute and any other relevant circumstances of the case.

Article 20

Deposits

(a) The Administrator may, at the time of the appointment of the mediator, require each party to deposit an equal amount as an advance for the costs of the mediation, including, in particular, the estimated fees of the mediator and the other expenses of the mediation. The amount of the deposit shall be determined by the Administrator.

(b) The Administrator may require the Parties to make supplementary deposits in equal shares.

(c) If a Party fails, within seven (7) days after a reminder in writing from the Administrator, to pay the required deposit, the mediation shall be deemed to be terminated. The Administrator shall, by notice in writing, inform the Parties and the mediator accordingly and indicate the date of termination.

(d) After the termination of the mediation, the Administrator shall render an accounting to the Parties of any deposits made and return any unexpended balance to the Parties or require the payment of any amount owing from the Parties.

Article 21

Costs

(a) Upon termination of the mediation proceedings, the Administrator fixes the costs of the mediation and gives written notice thereof to the Parties. The term "costs" includes:

- (i) The fees of the mediator;
- (ii) The travel and other expenses of the mediator;
- (iii) The costs (including fees, travel and other expenses) of any independent expert appointed in accordance with Article 12 of these Mediation Rules;
- (iv) Such other expenses as are necessary for the conduct of mediation proceedings, such as the cost of meeting facilities.

(b) The costs, as defined above, are borne equally by the Parties unless the Parties have agreed otherwise or the settlement agreement provides for a different apportionment. All other expenses incurred by a Party are borne by that Party.

Article 22

Exclusion of Liability

Except in respect of deliberate wrongdoing, the mediator and the Administrator shall not be liable for any act or omission in connection with any mediation conducted under these Mediation Rules.

Article 23

Waiver of Defamation

The Parties, and, by accepting appointment, the mediator agree that any statements or comments, whether written or oral, made or used by them or their representatives in preparation for or in the course of the mediation shall not be relied upon to found or maintain any action for defamation, libel, slander or any related complaint, and this Article may be pleaded as a bar to any such action.
