COUNCIL

Hundred Forty-fifth Session

Rome, 3-7 December 2012

Report of the 95th Session of the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters (Rome, 8-11 October 2012)

Executive Summary

The 95th Session of the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters (CCLM) :

- a) Examined a review of the implementation of the Organization's Whistleblower Protection Policy and concurred that no change to the policy was warranted;
- b) Examined a document entitled "Disclosure of Internal Audit Reports" and welcomed Management's proposal to periodically update during the year, through the Permanent Representatives' website, a list of reports available for viewing under the current disclosure policy, and encouraged the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) to work with Management to identify options under the current policy to allow for viewing of the reports other than through physical visits to OIG's offices;
- c) Endorsed a proposal to modify the standard arbitration clause used in commercial contracts of the Organization to include a provision for the administration of arbitration proceedings by the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA);
- d) Noting that the Council, at its 144th Session in June 2012, had expressed general agreement to the proposal and that the Finance Committee would review financial costs related to the implementation of the proposed amendments to Rules XXXVII and XL of the General Rules of the Organization (GRO), reiterated the recommendation that the draft Conference Resolution set out in Appendix I to its report be endorsed by the Council for on-forwarding to the Conference;
- e) Reviewed and advised on a detailed list of outstanding issues concerning statutory bodies established under Article XIV of the Constitution, with a view to allowing them to exercise greater financial and administrative authority while remaining within the framework of FAO. The list was prepared drawing on the results of a consultation process with membership and secretaries of these bodies, undertaken in response to IPA action 2.69, as well as the documentation already examined in 2009 by the CCLM. Acknowledging the complexity of the matter, the CCLM agreed that it was essential to identify bodies established under Article XIV of the Constitution which would benefit from the facilities identified in the report based on a number of criteria. As a general guiding principle, the CCLM held the view that increased delegation of authority to bodies established under Article XIV of the Constitution

- could be considered provided that the secretariats of those bodies be adequately staffed and appropriate oversight mechanisms by the Organization were in place;
- f) Reviewed the practice of the General Committee in recommending to the Conference restoration of voting rights, as well as the practice of approval of Instalment Plans for the settlement of arrears. Noting the guidance offered by the Conference, at its 33rd Session in November 2005, when considering the issue of restoration of voting rights, the CCLM expressed readiness to examine the legal aspects of the matter;
 - g) Endorsed the draft Council Resolution containing the revised Statutes of the Agriculture, Land and Water Use Commission for the Near East (ALAWUC) and decided to forward it to the Council for approval;
 - h) Reviewed proposed amendments to Rule XXXIII of the GRO concerning the Committee on World Food Security (CFS) and considered that it should examine the proposed amendments only at its next session in February 2013, following review and endorsement of the proposed amendments by the CFS at its 39th Session;
 - i) Reviewed draft Conference Resolution entitled “Amendments to Rules XXIX.2, XXX.2, XXXI.2 and XXXII.2 of the General Rules of the Organization” to the effect that notifications of membership should be made not later than ten days before the opening date of a session and agreed to forward it to the Council for subsequent transmission to the Conference for approval;
 - j) Endorsed the draft Council Resolution containing the revised Statutes of the Advisory Committee on Paper and Wood Products (ACPWP), a body of experts established under Article VI, paragraph 2 of the Constitution, and agreed to forward it to the Council for approval; and
 - k) Reviewed and endorsed the progress report prepared in the context of the Multi-year programme of work for the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters and underlined the distinctive features of the CCLM.

I. Introduction

1. The Ninety-fifth Session of the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters (CCLM) was held from 8 to 11 October 2012.

2. The Session, open to silent observers, was chaired by His Excellency Hassan Janabi (Iraq). The following members were present:

Ms. Mónica Martínez Menduño (Ecuador)

Mr. Jarlath O'Connor (Ireland)

Mr. Khalid Mehboob (Pakistan)

Ambassador Hasan Khaddour (Syrian Arab Republic)

Mr. Gregory Groth (United States of America)

Ms. Kampamba Pam Mwananshiku (Zambia)

3. The Committee was informed of a notification that Mr. Ammar Awad (Syrian Arab Republic) had been replaced by Mr. Essam Al Shahin. The Committee noted that Mr. Lawrence Kuna Kalinoe (Papua New Guinea) could not participate in the session.

4. The CCLM approved its Provisional Agenda. When approving the agenda, the CCLM noted that the Independent Chairperson of the Council had informed that he was no longer pursuing the issue of the role and conditions of service of the Independent Chairperson of the Council and decided to remove it from the agenda.

II. Review of the implementation of the Whistleblower Protection Policy

5. The CCLM examined document CCLM95/2 entitled "Review of Implementation of the Whistleblower Protection Policy"; received supplemental information including on the process of receiving complaints of retaliation, and the possible reasons for complaints coming exclusively to date from field locations; and was advised of plans by the Office of the Inspector General to further publicize the policy to ensure continuing awareness by staff.

6. The CCLM concurred that no change in the policy, including the receipt and screening of complaints of retaliation by OIG, was warranted at this stage.

III. Disclosure of Internal Audit Reports

7. The CCLM examined document CCLM95/3 entitled "Disclosure of Internal Audit Reports" and received further explanations of management's concerns related to the potential blurring of the distinctions between the external and internal audit functions.

8. The CCLM welcomed Management's proposal to periodically update during the year, through the Permanent Representatives' website, a list of reports available for viewing under the current disclosure policy, and encouraged the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) to work with Management to identify options under the current policy to allow for viewing of the reports other than through physical visits to OIG's offices. In this regard, the CCLM suggested that the experience with secure online methods that have been piloted by some other organizations of the United Nations System to facilitate remote viewing be considered.

IV. Review of standard arbitration clauses in FAO commercial contracts

9. The CCLM examined document CCLM 95/4 "Review of standard arbitration clauses in FAO commercial contracts".

10. While noting that there had been only three instances of recourse to arbitration proceedings since 2000, the Committee considered and endorsed a proposal to modify the standard arbitration clause used in contracts of the Organization with commercial suppliers to include a provision for the administration of arbitration proceedings by the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) at The Hague, The Netherlands, as follows:

“Arbitrations under this provision shall be administered by the International Bureau of the Permanent Court of Arbitration.”

V. Proposed amendments to Rules XXXVII and XL of the General Rules of the Organization

11. The CCLM examined document CCLM 95/8 “Proposed amendments to Rules XXXVII and XL of the General Rules of the Organization”. The CCLM noted that it had already reviewed and endorsed the proposed amendments which, in addition to reducing the duration of the nominations period to the office of Director-General, restricted the authority of the Director-General to make appointments to senior positions during the last six months of a term of office and provided for a number of facilities for a Director-General Elect until the assumption of office.

12. The CCLM noted that the Council, at its 144th Session in June 2012, had expressed general agreement to the proposed amendments but, on the recommendation of the Finance Committee, a proposal had been made to examine the financial implications of the arrangements for the transition period.

13. The CCLM noted that document CCLM 95/8 included a detailed allocation covering the costs involved in the implementation of new Rule XXXVII, paragraph 6 of the General Rules of the Organization (GRO) on facilities to be given to a Director-General Elect until the assumption of duties, to be incorporated within the net appropriation in the Programme of Work and Budget for a biennium where there would be an election of a Director-General.

14. The CCLM reiterated the recommendation that the draft Conference Resolution set out in Appendix I be endorsed by the Council for on-forwarding to the Conference. The CCLM noted that the financial implications of the proposed restrictions to the appointment authority of the Director-General should still be examined by the Finance Committee.

VI. Review of Article XIV Statutory Bodies with a view to allowing them to exercise greater financial and administrative authority while remaining within the framework of FAO

15. The CCLM examined document CCLM 95/12 “Review of Article XIV statutory bodies with a view to allowing them to exercise greater financial and administrative authority while remaining within the framework of FAO”. The CCLM acknowledged that the matter was complex, insofar as bodies established by treaty under Article XIV of the Constitution were different depending on their constituent instruments. The CCLM noted that document CCLM 95/12 had been prepared in response to IPA Action 2.69 and was based on an earlier document reviewed by the CCLM in 2009 and by the Council in October 2009. The CCLM regretted that proposals made at the time were not implemented.

16. The CCLM agreed that it was essential to identify bodies established under Article XIV of the Constitution which would benefit from the facilities foreseen in the document. Eventually, the CCLM noted the views of the secretariat that it could be counterproductive to establish an exhaustive list of these bodies and that these should be identified on the basis of criteria such as their funding mechanisms, their functional needs and legal authority as defined in the constituent instruments, the conditions of appointment of their secretaries and their accountability to the bodies in question. Examples of these bodies are the Indian Ocean Tuna Commission, the General Fisheries Commission for the Mediterranean and the International Treaty on Plant Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture.

17. As a general guiding principle, the CCLM held the view that increased delegation of authority to bodies under Article XIV of the Constitution could be considered provided that the secretariats of those bodies be adequately staffed and appropriate oversight mechanisms by the Organization be in place. The CCLM recommended that a review be undertaken by the secretariat to examine and determine, in consultation with the secretariat of bodies, whether the above conditions (adequacy of staffing and appropriate oversight mechanisms) are in place.

18. As regards external relations of bodies under Article XIV of the Constitution, the CCLM was of the view that secretaries of bodies referred to in paragraph 16 should travel on business in accordance with the statutory body work programme and allocated budget.

19. As regards conclusion of arrangements with other organizations, the CCLM noted that a procedure approved by the FAO Council in 2004 had been operating satisfactorily and seemed to respond to the needs of bodies under Article XIV of the Constitution, while allowing for coherence between the activities of those bodies and those of FAO.

20. On budgetary, financial and audit issues, the CCLM considered that these matters should be examined by the Finance Committee. The CCLM noted that the Finance Committee should comment on the issue of project servicing costs. As regards requests for "third party audits", the CCLM noted that these were not possible under the Basic Texts of the Organization. However, it was possible for the Finance Committee to request the External Auditor of FAO to perform certain specific examinations under Financial Regulation 12.6, provided that costs be covered by the body in question.

21. As regards human resources matters, the CCLM noted that these were mainly within the purview of the Finance Committee and could be addressed through Management action. The CCLM underlined that it was essential to make adjustments to Performance Evaluation Management System (PEMS), insofar as some secretaries were directly under the operational authority of Article XIV bodies and not of FAO. Hence, performance assessments of secretaries of such bodies should on technical and operational matters be done by the membership of their governing bodies.

22. As regards channels of communication with Governments and official correspondence, the CCLM noted an earlier proposal that the Correspondence Manual be adjusted to reflect the particular situation of bodies under Article XIV of the Constitution, but this had not been done. The CCLM requested that this proposal be implemented.

23. As regards relations with donors, the CCLM noted the proposal that facilities regarding resource mobilization be given to secretaries of bodies under Article XIV of the Constitution, subject to a need for overall coherence in resource mobilization activities of FAO. The CCLM also stressed that in some cases the secretariats were under a legal obligation to implement funding strategies flowing directly from the constituent instruments or from decisions of the bodies and, therefore, had to maintain direct relations with donors.

24. As regards the organization of meetings, including the conclusion of Memoranda of Responsibilities regarding such meetings, insofar as these involved issues related to the universal status of FAO and privileges and immunities they should continue to be concluded by or on behalf the Director-General.

25. As regards the servicing of meetings, including possible outsourcing of some activities such as translation, the CCLM noted that the matter was mainly within the purview of the Finance or Programme Committee and that there was, in any case, a need for quality control by FAO. The CCLM did not agree with the recommendation that, in order to reduce costs, some meetings be held in a limited number of languages.

26. As regards the issue of participation by non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and other stakeholders in meetings of FAO, including meetings of statutory bodies, the CCLM recommended that the current flexible, pragmatic practice continue. The CCLM agreed that, for the time being, no general rules on NGO participation applicable to all meetings of the Organization should be established in view of the differentiated nature of NGOs and stakeholders, the currently evolving situation, the different needs and status of the meetings of the Organization, as well as potential lack of consensus on the matter among the membership. In this particular regard, the CCLM observed that it would be difficult to extend to other bodies of the Organization the regime currently applied to the Committee on World Food Security.

27. As regards the issue of the reporting relationship with the main bodies of FAO, the CCLM considered that in view of the specific legal status of each body under Article XIV of the Constitution, the scope and purpose of reporting should be primarily defined by each body taking into account as appropriate the views of the Organization. The CCLM considered that in some cases, reporting to the Conference is justified.

28. The CCLM noted that the review set out in document CCLM 95/12 would be referred to the forthcoming sessions of the Programme and Finance Committee and requested that its deliberations be made available to these Committees.

VII. Membership of the General Committee of the Conference in a year of election of the Director-General

29. The CCLM examined document CCLM 95/10 entitled "Membership of the General Committee in a year of election of the Director-General". The Committee had an extensive debate on the composition and functions of the General Committee of the Conference and on the practice followed for many years regarding its recommendation to the Conference on the restoration of voting rights of Member Nations in arrears, under Article III, paragraph 4 of the Constitution.

30. The CCLM was of the view that the concerns underlying the insertion of the item in the agenda should be addressed by the CCLM and the Finance Committee, within their respective mandates, when considering the broader issue of the treatment of arrears.

VIII. Legal aspects of the treatment of arrears (restoration by the Conference of the voting rights of Member Nations in arrears)

31. The CCLM examined document CCLM 95/14 "Legal aspects of the treatment of arrears (restoration by the Conference of the voting rights of Member Nations in arrears)". The document described the main provisions of the Basic Texts on sanctions applicable to Member Nations in arrears, including loss of voting rights at the Conference, ineligibility for elections to the Council and loss of seats at the Council. The document also reviewed the practice of the General Committee in recommending to the Conference restoration of voting rights, as well as the practice of approval of Installment Plans for the settlement of arrears.

32. The CCLM noted that the Conference, at its 33rd Session in November 2005, when considering the issue of restoration of voting rights recommended that the normal course of action in respect of Member Nations in arrears, in addition to the provisions of Article III paragraph 4 of the Constitution, should consist in actively encouraging them to submit an Installment Plan for the settlement of such arrears as a condition for the restoration of their voting rights. The Conference also recommended that in future requests for restoration of voting rights be referred to the Director-General for submission to the Autumn Session of the Finance Committee in Conference years, which would submit its views to the Conference, through the Council for consideration by the General Committee. The CCLM recommended that the Finance Committee should examine again this recommendation, which would need to be adjusted to take into account the new calendar of sessions of the Conference and other Governing Bodies.

33. The CCLM expressed its readiness to examine the legal aspects of the matter, including whether it would be appropriate to reflect in the Basic Texts of the Organization the requirement that requests for restoration of voting rights or approval of Installment Plans be submitted to the Organization in a timely manner, in accordance with the guidance of the Conference.

IX. Revised Statutes of the Agriculture, Land and Water Use Commission for the Near East (ALAWUC)

34. The Committee reviewed document CCLM 95/5 containing the “Revised Statutes of the Agriculture, Land and Water Use Commission for the Near East (ALAWUC)”. The Committee noted that the draft Statutes had been endorsed by the Commission during its Seventh Session (Special) held in Cairo, Egypt, 8-9 May 2012.

35. The CCLM endorsed the draft Council Resolution set out in Appendix II of this Report containing the revised Statutes, and decided to forward it to the Council for approval.

X. Committee on World Food Security (CFS): proposed amendments to Rule XXXIII of the GRO

36. The Committee reviewed document CCLM 95/7 entitled “Committee on World Food Security (CFS): Proposed Amendments to Rule XXXIII of the General Rules of the Organization”.

37. The CCLM noted that the proposed amendments to Rule XXXIII of the GRO had been examined by the CFS Open-ended Working Group on the CFS Rules of Procedure, had been reviewed by the CFS Bureau and that the proposed amendments to Rule XXXIII of the GRO would still be submitted to the CFS at its 39th Session for review.

38. In view of the above on-going process, the CCLM considered that it should examine the proposed amendments only at its next session in February 2013, following review and endorsement of the proposed amendments by the CFS at its forthcoming 39th Session.

XI. Membership of Technical Committees: Review of Rules XXIX, XXX, XXXI and XXXII of the General Rules of the Organization

39. The CCLM examined document CCLM 95/9 “Membership of Technical Committees: Review of Rules XXIX, XXX, XXXI and XXXII of the General Rules of the Organization”. The CCLM noted that, under the current rules, Members were required to notify the secretariat of their desire to be considered as Members of the Technical Committees. Such notification could be made at any time and remained valid unless the Member country had not been represented at two consecutive sessions or had notified its withdrawal from it. Under this system membership could be acquired at any time, even while the Committees were in session resulting in uncertainty regarding both the actual membership of the Committees and quorum for decision making.

40. The CCLM considered that this situation was undesirable and, following a discussion on the most suitable timeframe, endorsed proposed amendments to Rules XXIX, paragraph 2, XXX, paragraph 2, XXXI, paragraph 2 and XXXII, paragraph 2 of the GRO to the effect that notifications of membership should be made not later than ten days before the opening date of a session.

41. The CCLM endorsed the draft Conference Resolution set out in Appendix III of this report and decided to transmit it to the Council for forwarding to the Conference.

XII. Revised Statutes of the Advisory Committee on Paper and Wood Products (ACPWP)

42. The CCLM examined document CCLM 95/6 “Revised Statutes of the Advisory Committee on Paper and Wood Products (ACPWP)” on the basis of a detailed presentation by the Assistant Director-General, Forestry and the Secretary of the ACPWP. The Committee observed that the Advisory Committee was a body established under Article VI, paragraph 2, composed of experts selected on the basis of their qualifications and experience, and designated by the Director-General after consultation with the country of nationality of the expert.

43. The CCLM noted that the proposed revised Statutes for the Advisory Committee incorporated procedural elements applicable to committees of experts designated by the Director-General on the basis of individual qualifications and reporting to him, as well as procedures and working mechanisms applicable to inter-governmental bodies. The CCLM considered that there was a need for more clarity on this matter and proposed a few amendments to the Statutes.

44. The CCLM endorsed the revised Statutes contained in the draft Council Resolution set out in Appendix IV to this Report and recommended its adoption by the Council.

XIII. Multi-year programme of work for the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters – Annual report

45. The CCLM considered document CCLM 95/13 “Multi-year programme of work for the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters – Annual report”.

46. The CCLM endorsed the progress report and, in this connection, underlined that there were no standing or recurrent items in the CCLM mandate which it could examine at pre-established dates. The CCLM expressed appreciation for the manner in which the distinctive features of the Committee and its mandate were described in the progress report.

Resolution /2013

Amendments to Rule XXIX.2, Rule XXX.2, Rule XXXI.2 and Rule XXXII.2 of the General Rules of the Organization

THE CONFERENCE,

Having taken note of the views of the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters (CCLM), at its Ninety-fifth session (Rome, 8-11 October 2012) on the proposed amendments to Rule XXIX.2 (Committee on Commodity Problems), Rule XXX.2 (Committee on Fisheries), Rule XXXI.2 (Committee on Forestry) and Rule XXXII.2 (Committee on Agriculture) of the General Rules of the Organization;

Considering that the Council, at its Hundred and Forty-fifth Session (Rome, 3-7 December 2012), endorsed the amendments proposed by the CCLM and agreed to transmit them to the Conference for approval;

Having noted that the Rules on membership require the effective presence of Members at the meetings of the above Committees to avoid the validity of deliberations being questioned;

Having further noted that allowing a notification of membership to be made at “any time” creates a high degree of uncertainty and that the proposed amendments would contribute to eliminate this uncertainty by setting a time frame during which no further changes in membership are allowed in respect of an upcoming session of a Committee;

Decides to amend Rule XXIX.2, Rule XXX.2, Rule XXXI.2 and Rule XXXII.2 of the General Rules of the Organization as follows²:

“2. The notification referred to in paragraph 1 may be made at any time but not later than 10 days before the opening date of a session. ~~and in~~ Membership acquired on the basis thereof shall be considered valid unless the Member has not been represented at two consecutive sessions of the Committee, or has notified its withdrawal from it. The Director-General shall circulate, at the beginning of each session of the Committee, a document listing the Members of the Committee.”
