- f) appreciated the efforts designed to seek efficiencies and savings, including in the area of administration and travel costs, and welcomed Management commitment to continue to pursue such savings;

Use of unspent balance of the 2016-17 appropriations<sup>4</sup>

4. The Joint Meeting noted:
- a) the guidance provided by the Conference on use of any unspent balance of the 2016-17 appropriations;
  - b) the need for a more systematic approach, including inter alia modalities and criteria, and broader informal consultations with Members in future biennia on the use of any unspent balances of the biennial appropriations prior to the Conference in 2019;
  - c) the establishment of the Special Fund for Development Finance Activities (SFDFA) with an agreed level of USD 10 million and the fact that this Fund had not yet received any voluntary contributions from donors;
  - d) the Special Fund could accelerate FAO's technical and programmatic support to Members through advance financing to provide technical assistance and investment programming for development finance;
  - e) the need for sustainable funding solutions for high-priorities areas of work of the Organization, specifically the scientific advice for food safety and Codex Alimentarius;
  - f) the need to invite the World Health Organization to increase its contribution to the Joint FAO/WHO Codex Alimentarius; and
  - g) the support for the establishment of a Blind Trust Fund designed to enhance contribution from state and non-state actors, aimed at supporting a sustainable funding solution to FAO's work and activities related to scientific advice for food safety and the Codex Alimentarius as indicated in the Open Ended Working Group of COAG, with an initial level of USD 1.5 million.
5. Therefore, the Joint Meeting recommended the Council:
- a) approve allocation of the unspent balance of the 2016-17 appropriations through replenishment of the SFDFA;
  - b) approve allocation, with agreement from resource partners, of 10 percent of the unspent balances of the MAFAP/FMM Trust Funds, up to a maximum of USD 0.5 million, for the Blind Trust Fund aimed at supporting a sustainable funding solution to the FAO's work and activities relating to scientific advice for food safety and the Codex Alimentarius; and
  - c) in addition to point 5.a) above, approve allocation of fifty percent of unspent balance of the 2016-17 appropriations above a threshold of USD 5 million, up to a maximum of USD 1 million, towards the Blind Trust Fund.
6. The Joint Meeting noted that its recommendations should not constitute a precedent for the future use of unspent balances, and also recommended the Council agree for the Secretariat to submit, for review by the Committee on Constitutional and Legal Matters (CCLM) and the Joint Meeting of
