EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- The membership of the FAO Oversight Advisory Committee consists of five external Members. The Committee’s Terms of Reference provide that Members serve for a three-year period, which may be renewed for a maximum of three further years after the initial term, by a decision of the FAO Council.
- The FAO Oversight Advisory Committee currently comprises three women and two men. In December 2020, one Member of the Committee – Mr Gianfranco Cariola - will have completed his initial three-year term.
- Mr Cariola provides to the Committee senior level experience in the private sector, which responds to Recommendation 5 of the Joint Inspection Unit (JIU) report Review of audit and oversight committees in the United Nations system\(^1\) for a balanced skills mix.
- Upon the advice received from the Oversight Advisory Committee, taking into account Mr Cariola’s active and positive contribution; the need to balance the Committee in terms of continuity and turnover; and to maintain the Committee’s range of collective professional experience, the Director-General is recommending the extension of appointment of Mr Gianfranco Cariola for a further, final three years.

GUIDANCE SOUGHT FROM THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

- The Finance Committee is invited to consider the document and make a recommendation to the Council regarding the extension of appointment of Mr Gianfranco Cariola as Member of the Oversight Advisory Committee for a further, final three years, as recommended by the Director-General.

Draft Advice

The Committee:

- considered the document in which the Director-General proposed that Mr Gianfranco Cariola’s term on the FAO Oversight Advisory Committee be extended for a further, final three years;
- noted such extension would be made by the Council effective from December 2020;
- supported the Director-General's proposal and agreed to submit the recommendation to the Council.
