

UTF/077/ZAM: Technical Assistance to the Zambia Aquaculture Enterprise
Development Project (ZAEDP)

Conclusions and The Way Forward

Melba B. Reantaso

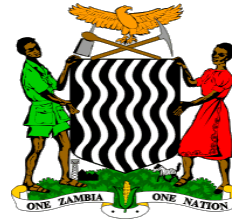

Melba.Reantaso@fao.org

4 Ps

- Purpose: to enhance capacities of government staff, producers and academic/research sectors in designing an active surveillance plan for EUS and TiLV including its implementation
- Process: 3.5 days; three sessions; 20 lectures; 11 working group exercises and presentations from trainees; practical work (Level I, II, III diagnostics) for EUS and TiLV
- Participation: (n=30 + n=6) Actual: 28
 - Trainees: DoF, DVS, NPWD, provincial governments, fish producers, research institutes

Implementation Plan

Activity: FAO/GoZ Team	4 th Q 2019	1 st Q 2020	2 nd Q 2020	3 rd Q 2020	4 th Q 2020	1 st Q 2021
1. Finalise surveillance plan (all components: technical, administrative operational and logistics and human and financial requirements, etc.), review and approval	x
2. Formation (official) and training of surveillance and diagnostic teams	x
3. Procurement of materials and supplies	x
4. Second FAO mission <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continue education on surveillance • Join the field sampling (Shiavonga) • Farm-level biosecurity targeting farmers (including prevention) • Level I/II/III diagnostics demonstration for farmers • NSAAH and PMP • Feedback and/or review of surveillance implementation 		x
5. Technical documents for farmers/extension officers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What you need to know about EUS, TiLV 	x	x
6. Data analysis workshop					x	x
7. International Symposium on Tilapia Health					x	x

UTF/077/ZAM: Technical Assistance to the Zambia Aquaculture Enterprise Development Project (ZAEDP)

Thank you for your attention