

CFS 49

11-14 October 2021

Follow-up to the Second International Conference on Nutrition (ICN2), including implementation of the UN Decade of Action on Nutrition

Nancy Aburto, FAO and Francesco Branca, WHO

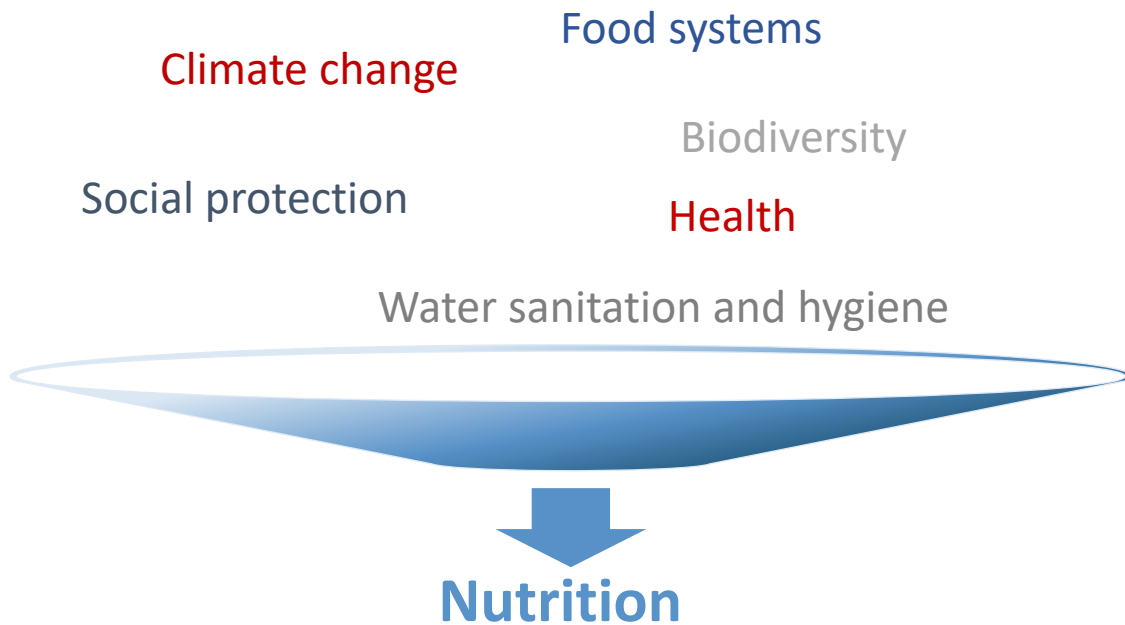

Website: www.un.org/nutrition/

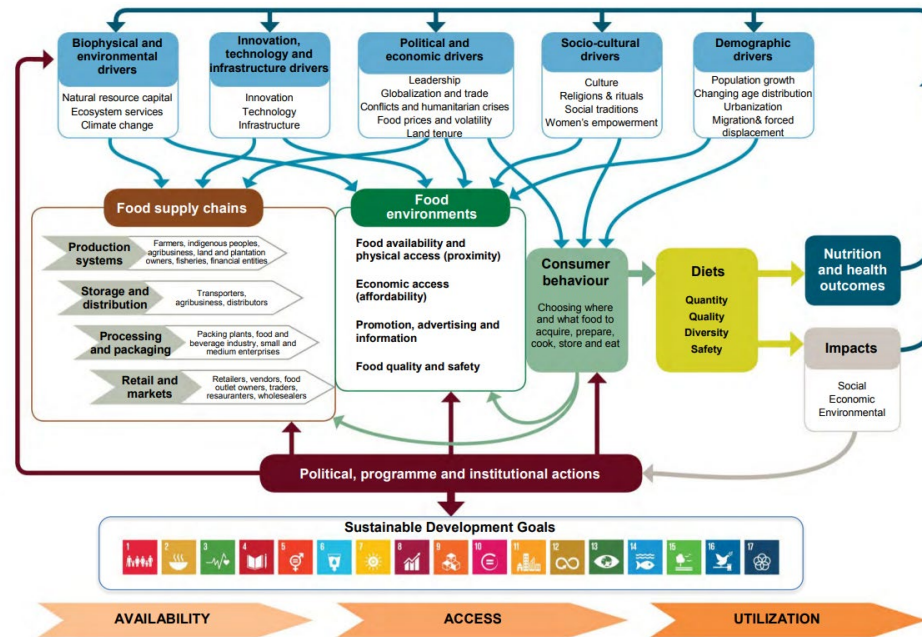

For more information, visit:
www.fao.org/cfs/plenary/cfs49

Advancements in Action Areas of the Nutrition Decade's Work Programme

The nutrition narrative is shifting

Embracing food systems approach

SMART Commitments

Country-led Action Networks

Co-leads of action networks

Australia, Brazil, Chile, France, Germany, Italy, Norway and Uruguay

In context of the Food Systems Summit

School Meals Coalition

Healthy Diets Coalition

Progress reported by non-state actors and UN agencies and entities

- CARE
- Civil Society Mechanism to CFS
- GLOPAN
- Global Dairy Platform
- HarvestPlus
- International Livestock Research Institute
- International Food and Beverage Alliance
- Private Sector Mechanism to CFS
- SUN Movement and its supporting networks
- WaterAid

- FAO
- IAEA
- IFAD
- UNICEF
- UN Interagency Task Force on the Prevention and Control of NCDs
- UNDP
- UNEP
- UN Habitat
- WFP
- WHO
- UN Nutrition

Mid-term Review

Objectives

Achievement and Gaps 2016-2020

Priority action 2021- 2025

Background
document

Foresight Paper

2020/2021

Informal consultations with countries in 2020

Several dialogues with non-state actors 2020

Online consultation convened by UN Nutrition in 2021

Key action points emerging from Mid-term Review

Nutrition objectives in food and agriculture policies

Food reformulation

Food control systems

Essential nutrition actions into national UHC plans

Wasting reduction

Nutrition-sensitive social protection policies

Food and nutrition education

Nutrition investments

Nutrition-sensitive trade policies

National nutrition information systems

Conclusion and the way forward

Second International Conference on Nutrition
Rome, 19-21 November 2014
Conference Outcome Document: Framework for Action

FROM COMMITMENTS TO ACTION

There has been a significant improvement in...
undernutrition has been uneven...
ably improve nutrition the...
all relevant sectors...
targets

CFS has a crucial role to achieve the aims of the Nutrition Decade and the related SDG targets

