

Bambang Supriyanto

Director General of Social Forestry and Environmental Partnership. Ministry of Environment and Forestry, Indonesia

Bambang Supriyanto is currently the Director General of Social Forestry and Environmental Partnership at the Ministry of Environment and Forestry, Indonesia. Previously, he held a number of leadership positions in the Ministry including Head of Planning Bureau, Director of Research and Development for Social Economic Forest Policy and Climate Change Center, and Director of Utilization of Environmental Services of Conservation Forest.

In addition to his government post, Supriyanto is also National Coordinator for WWF Indonesia, and Indonesian Coordinator for Asian Raptor Research and Conservation Network (ARRCN). Additionally he works with IUCN, CIFOR, Indonesia-Finland Cooperation, Gede Pahala, Raptor Sanctuary, and Tropical Forest Conservation Act II for Borneo.

Supriyanto has a Bachelor degree from the Forestry Faculty of the Bogor Agricultural University, Indonesia, and his Master degree in Forest Policy and Planning and his Doctorate in Management of Land and Forestry from the University of Ghent, Belgium.