

SPEAKERS' BIOS

Mr. Qu Dongyu, Director-General, Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO)

Qu Dongyu took office on 1 August 2019 as Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations. Born in 1963 to a rice-growing family in China's Hunan Province, Qu studied horticultural science at Hunan Agricultural University and then plant breeding and genetics at the Chinese Academy of Agricultural Sciences. He later added environmental science to his knowledge portfolio while earning a PhD at Wageningen University, in the Netherlands. Before joining FAO, Qu served as China's Vice Minister of Agriculture and Rural Affairs, where one of his achievements was to promote inclusive and innovative development and make sure information and communication technologies (ICT) were available in rural areas so that more than 400 million farmers could use their smartphones as a new farming tool. His motto is "Simple life, but not simple work".

Mr. Honourable Afioga Lopao Natanielu Mua, Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries of Samoa

Honourable Afioga Lopao is the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries of Samoa. He holds a Certificate in Law from the University of the South Pacific (USP) and a Certificate in Advance Parliamentary Governance from McGill University in Canada. Lopao is a proud farmer with 35 years of experience in the Civil Construction Industry in Samoa and New Zealand, particularly in the transport, water and energy sectors. He is a member of the Pacific Water and Wastes Association (PWWA) and an Associate Member of the Institute of Professional Engineers in Samoa (IPES).

Makoto Osawa, Vice Minister for International Affairs, Ministry of Agriculture, Japan

Mr. Makoto Osawa is currently Vice-Minister for International Affairs, Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries in Japan. His distinguished 36-year career has included positions in Japan's overseas missions, including the Permanent Mission of Japan to the International Organizations in Geneva, as well as senior postings in various ministerial departments. A graduate of Tokyo University's Faculty of Law, Mr. Osawa became Vice-Minister for International Affairs in July of 2019.

Mr. Thanawat Tiensin, CFS Chairperson and Permanent Representative of Thailand to the Rome agencies

Mr. Thanawat Tiensin was elected as the Chairperson of CFS in 2019. He is the Permanent Representative of Thailand to the UN agencies in Rome (FAO, IFAD, WFP). He was a former acting Assistant Director General and Senior Expert in International Livestock and Veterinary Policies in charge of international trade and regulations on veterinary and SPS related issues at Department of Livestock Development, Ministry of Agriculture and Cooperatives, Thailand. He had worked as Regional Project Coordinator on Smallholder Dairy Development Programme in Bangladesh, Myanmar and Thailand. He also worked as an international consultant on disease surveillance and control, livestock emergency response, SPS/import risk analysis, capacity building and project management for FAO, IAEA, EU, OIE, and ADB projects in North Korea, Myanmar, Nepal, Bangladesh, Laos, and Indonesia. Outside of work, his main interests are family, gardening, swimming, running, cycling, badminton, travelling, and outdoor activities.

Ms Erin Sweeney, Manager, Sustainable Business & Investment, Grow Asia

Erin is Manager, Sustainable Business and Investment at Grow Asia, a multi-stakeholder partnership platform that catalyzes action on inclusive agricultural development in South East Asia. Erin leads the implementation of the action plan for the ASEAN Guidelines on Responsible Agricultural Investments (RAI), as well as Grow Asia's gender mainstreaming initiatives. Erin is trained as an urban planner specializing in food systems policy, and has worked and lived in the United States, South America, South Asia and the Caribbean. Erin was a Fulbright Scholar based in Singapore where she conducted research on urban food systems and consumer demand for locally-grown food.

Ms Shalmali Guttal, Executive Director of Focus on the Global South and representative of the CFS Civil Society Mechanism

Shalmali Guttal is the Executive Director of Focus on the Global South (Focus). She has been working on economic development, trade-investment, food and land rights, and ecological and social justice issues for over 25 years, with emphasis on community rights to resources, women's rights, and democratization of resource governance. Focus has been a member of the Civil Society Mechanism (CSM) in the Committee for World Food Security (CFS) since its establishment. Ms. Guttal has been actively engaged in several CFS processes, notably the VGGT, RAI, HLPE Report on Water and Nutrition, HLPE Report on Sustainable Forestry for Food Security and Nutrition, and is currently involved with the negotiations on CFS Guidelines on Food Security for Nutrition

Mr Stuart Oda, Founder, Alesca Life and representative of the CFS Private Sector Mechanism

Stuart is an investment banker turned urban farmer passionate about sustainability, innovation, and impact. He co-founded Alesca Life, an agricultural technology company developing solutions to improve food security, food safety, supply chain transparency and farming efficiency. His goal: democratize access to fresh and nutritious food by democratizing the means and knowledge of production. Stuart is an UCLA alumni and previously worked in the investment banking division of Merrill Lynch Japan Securities in Tokyo and the emerging market business strategy team at Dell China in Beijing.