

TIME TO ACT TOGETHER: COORDINATING POLICY RESPONSES TO THE GLOBAL FOOD SECURITY CRISIS

High Level Special Event

Monday, 18 July 2022, from 3:00 – 6:00 p.m. (EDT)
Trusteeship Council Chamber, United Nations Headquarters, New York

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

3:00 p.m.	I. Opening Segment
3:15 p.m.	II. Context Setting Session: The Challenges Speakers will talk about the current food crisis which is linked closely to fuel, climate, health, inequalities and other protracted threats, in what is a cost-of-living crisis for many in the world and also focus on the latest update from the UN Secretary General’s Global Crisis Response Group. Interventions will also be heard from Civil Society, Private Sector and the CFS High Level Panel of Experts
3:35 p.m.	III. Session: Mobilising Leadership Speakers will highlight keynote messages on the impact of the food crisis on the most affected countries, followed by sharing of ongoing initiatives that are mobilizing efforts to mitigate the effects of the global crisis.
4.05 p.m.	IV. Interactive Dialogue: Coordinated Responses at local, national and regional levels This moderated segment will focus on national and regional interventions to confront the crisis. Delegations will be asked to address the following questions in their intervention: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Which are the most pressing challenges and the corresponding priority responses –strategies, policies or programs, your country is taking to respond to the impacts of the current food crisis? 2. Which are the priority responses that need to be pursued at the global level, including by the UN System, the International Financing Institutions and other international organizations?

5:15 p.m.	V. Session: Globally Coordinated Responses Leaders and senior representatives of the UN Global Crisis Response Group will build on the interventions made by Members States and other stakeholders and highlight the policy responses the UN system is/will be recommending.
5.45 p.m.	Closing Segment