14.00 – 15.30 - Break-out group discussions: CFS role in advancing women's empowerment, women's rights and gender equality

3 Groups with 1 Facilitator and 1 Rapporteur for each group.

Key topics for discussions:

How are CFS policy outcomes promoting women's empowerment, women's rights and gender equality as a pre-requisite for food security and nutrition?

Taking into account its mandate, what concrete steps can CFS take to further advance women's empowerment, women's rights and gender equality in its work to produce a tangible shift towards gender equality and enhance the implementation of the UN General Recommendation 34 of CEDAW (2 016) on the rights of rural women?

What actions are required and by whom in order to strengthen the content and implementation of national and international normative frameworks for women's empowerment?

15.30 – 16.30 - Presentation of break-out groups' outcomes

16.30 – 17.00 - Closure
