

IPROMO 2021 - POST COVID-19 RECOVERY IN MOUNTAIN AREAS

ay	Topics/presentations	Instructors
6/07	Opening ceremony	Michele Freppaz, UNITO Giuseppe Scarascia Mugnozza, UNITUS
	An overview of the Mountain Partnership, IPROMO and this year's main topic	Rosalaura Romeo, FAO-MPS
	Introduction of participants and establishment of working groups	Danilo Godone, Chairman Tommaso Chiti, UNITUS
7-8/07	Understanding sustainable mountain development	Hans Schreier - University of British Columbia
8/07	Solidarity in mountain areas during the COVID-19 crisis	Michele Cucchi - Associazione Cuore Attivo Monte Rosa
9/07	Sustainable mountain development in the Andes: Challenges in mountain landscapes in a context of environmental change	Manuel Peralvo - CONDESAN
	Mountain soils and C sequestration	Silvia Stanchi - UNITO
12/07	Transforming agrifood systems in the post COVID-19: implications for sustainability in mountain areas	Jose VallsBedeau - FAO
13/07	Post-COVID-19 Climate change in mountains, its drivers and effects - an overview	Elisa Palazzi - CNR ISAC & UNITO
		Claudio Cassardo - UNITO
14/07	COVID-19 and transforming mountain tourism: restarting sustainably	Riccardo Beltramo – UNITO
		Marcello Notarianni - FAO
15/07	Zooming in - Andes:	Maria Cecilia Roa Garcia - UNIANDES
	Water metabolism and water allocation in an extractive frontier – an example from the Andes
16/07	Zooming in - Himalaya and Carpathian regions	Abid Hussain – ICIMOD
	Can social innovation offer transformative opportunities to marginalised mountain areas?	Maria Nijnik - James Hutton Institute
19/07	Closing ceremony

Technical notes:

IPROMO 2021 - POST COVID-19 RECOVERY IN MOUNTAIN AREAS

Lecture time 14-18 CEST

Each module lasts 45 minutes plus 15 minutes discussions

Each day includes 4 modules