

International Network of Mountain Indigenous People (INMIP)
Fifth International Learning Exchange on Climate Change and Biocultural Heritage
Kyrgyzstan, 26-31 July 2018

DRAFT AGENDA

Time	Day 1: Thursday 26 July International Arrivals in Bishkek
04:00	Arrival of participants from home countries to Bishkek
11:00	Travel to Osh	45 minute flight
12:00	Transfer to Arstanbap Village, Jalalabad Province	About 5 hours with stop for Group lunch
17:00	Accommodation in Hotel
	Setting the Stage
18:00	Opening of Walking Workshop Location: Arstanbap Village	Welcome by organizers, review of agenda and logistics, introductions, country reports
20:00	Dinner
	Day 2: Friday 27 July Theme: Ecosystem Rhythms Location: Arstanbap Village
08:30	Mountain indigenous peoples' responses to global climate change.	Walking workshop through a wild walnut forest and experiential learning on biocultural management.  Knowledge and experience exchange with group of forest resources users about biocultural approaches to climate threats
13:00	Lunch Location: Arstanbap Village
14:00	Promoting sustainable livelihoods through conservation on wild walnut forests and diversity of local fruit trees
17:00	Biocultural Festival Location: Arstanbap Village	Sharing food, songs, dances, videos, etc
22:00	Closing
	Day 3: Saturday 28 July
6:00	Travel to Suusamyr Pasture Valley
13:00	Lunch at Chychkan Gorge	Discussion about impacts of Dams on Mountain Indigenous Peoples
17:00	Arrival to Suusamyr Pasture Valley
18:00	Traditional Dinner
19:00	Cultural Evening and staying on pasture land	Mountain Music and Story Telling on Climate Change
	Day 4: Sunday 29 July Location: Suusamyr Pasture Valley
6:00	Morning Prayer and Pastoral Breakfast
6:30	Theme: Ecosystem Rhythms Walking workshop on Suusamyr pasture	Walking workshop on Suusamyr pasture: Learning traditional knowledge and approaches of pasture use and pasture management in context of climate change.  Meeting with local pastoralists (on Yurts).  Discussion and synthesis
10:00	Travel to Taldy Bulak Village of Talas Province	Bus ride of about 3 hours
12:30	Arrival to Taldy Bulak Village

International Network of Mountain Indigenous People (INMIP)
Fifth International Learning Exchange on Climate Change and Biocultural Heritage
Kyrgyzstan, 26-31 July 2018

DRAFT AGENDA

13:00	Lunch
14:00	Location: Taldy-Bulak Village Theme: Utilizing biocultural resources for mountain communities – innovations for the sustainable use of biocultural heritage-based untapped resources.
16:00	Travel to Kopuro Bazar Village	Bus ride of about 30 minutes
16:30	Hotel accommodations in the village
19:00	Group Dinner and Cultural Exchange
	Day 5: Monday 30 July Location: Kopuro Bazar Village
6:00	Morning Payer and Breakfast
8:00	Theme: Enhancing Livelihoods Exchange of experiences and knowledge with community, FOD Bio-Kg's staff, introduction and discussion organic aymak activities. Promoting sustainable livelihoods through organic and biocultural markets and business solutions – developing biocultural branding, market networks, developing cultural business models	Walking workshop through farmers' fields to observe organic aymak, eco-tourism and handicraft activities.  Discussion and synthesis
12:00	Group Lunch
13:00	Travel to Bishkek	Bus ride of about 6 hours
19:00	Arrival in Bishkek
20:00	Accommodation and dinner in the hotel.
21:00	Group work on Finalizing Bishkek Declaration
	Day 6: Tuesday 31 July Theme: INMIP meeting Location: Bishkek. Hotel Conference Hall
7:00	Breakfast
8:00	INMIP Administrative Business Evaluation of the walking workshop and Exchange.	Governance and Administrative matters, next venue of exchange, etc
13:00	Lunch
14:00	Policy Round Table on Mountain Indigenous Peoples and Migration	Round table discussions with invited policy makers
17:00	Closing
19:00	Group Dinner
21:00	International Departures to home countries	International flights start departing at 21:00