

Workshop on Mainstreaming the Restoration of Degraded Forests into Forestry Strategic Plans
PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

Day 1
8:00-9:00	Registration (local participants)
9:00-9:55	Opening Session Introduction of participants and outline of agenda APFNet remarks by Mr Qu Guilin FAO remarks by CR of Cambodia Key note speaker: Forest management and water resources. Dr. Chheng Kimsun, Head of Forestry Administration, Cambodia Key note speaker: The platform operation mechanism by APFNet
9:55-10:00	Group Photo
10:00-10:30	Coffee break
10:30-12.00	Session I: International initiatives on degraded forest restoration Presentation by Miguel Calmon, IUCN international Presentation by Mr Ken Shono, FAO regional office Biodiversity conservation and restoration: experiences from the ADB-funded project by Dr. Jeffrey Weber Q&A
12:00-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:30	Session II: Experiences and lessons learned on degraded forest restoration (Each presentation in 15 minutes) Experiences and lessons learned from South Korea by Mr. Jun Jaehong Other economies (according to PPT preparation, selected 2 economies to give presentation) Q&A
14:30-15:00	Coffee break

15:00-17:30	Panel discussion for session II Moderator Forest restoration officials from Bangladesh, Cambodia, China, Fiji, Indonesia, Lao PDR, Malaysia, South Korea, Sri Lanka, Thailand, the Philippines (not include previous presenters in this session) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The main causes of forest degradation 2. The negative impacts of forest degradation 3. Motivating factors to undertake forest restoration 4. Key challenges associated with forest restoration 5. Priority areas and desired benefits 6. Examples of interventions that are feasible and cost effective for the restoration of large areas
17.30-17.40	Day 1 summary
18:30	Reception
Day 2
8:30-9:30	Session III Effective approaches to mainstream degraded forest restoration into forestry plans (Each presentation in 15 minutes) Experiences and lessons learned among economies (according to PPT preparation, select 3 economies to give presentation)
9:30-10:00	Coffee break
10:00-11:00	Panel discussion for session III Planning officials from Bangladesh, Cambodia, China, Fiji, Indonesia, Lao PDR, Malaysia South Korea, Sri Lanka, Thailand, the Philippines (not include previous presenters in this session) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ways to address the key challenges of forest restoration 2. Ways to put forest restoration into national agenda and secure political support 3. The key actors and their roles to restore forests 4. Current and/or needed policy, as well as financial and social incentives, to restore forests 5. Ways to communicate forestry plans to other sectors and the public

	Session IV Priority activities of the Platform in 2015 Presentation by APFNet Group discussion moderated by workshop facilitator
11:00-11:30	Close session Day 2 summary APFNet & Cambodia Information on field trip and logistics
11:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30	Departure for Seam Reap
Day 3
Field trip in Seam Reap
Day 4 Departure from Seam Reap	