SIDE EVENTS - Second Session of the Committee on Agriculture (COAG) Sub-Committee on Livestock, 16-18 July 2024

BACKGROUND

The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) is convening the Second Session of the Committee on Agriculture (COAG) Sub-Committee on Livestock, which will be held in hybrid format at FAO headquarters in Rome, Italy, from 16 to 18 July 2024. This follows a successful First Session in 2022, which was attended by over 600 delegates from 129 FAO Members, as well as various non-governmental and intergovernmental organizations from around the world.

During the Second Session, delegates will discuss agenda items related to the three main thematic areas of the Sub-Committee's Multi-Year Programme of Work \(2022-2025\) which are:

- (1) Sustainable livestock systems for food security, nutrition and inclusive economic growth;
- (2) Animal, public and environmental health through the One Health approach; and
- (3) Natural resource use, climate change and biodiversity.

All relevant information about the Sub-Committee on Livestock is available at <https://www.fao.org/coag/sub-committee-on-livestock/about/en/>

SIDE EVENTS

The Second Session will include side events, from 12:15 to 13:45 CEST on 16, 17 and 18 July, related to the main thematic areas of the Sub-Committee's Multi-Year Programme of Work (2022-2025).

Please note that side event organizers must cover all expenses related to the organization and hosting of side event, including interpretation in all six official languages of the United Nations.

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

FAO Members and partner organizations are invited to submit proposals to COAG-Livestock@fao.org using the form below before the deadline: Tuesday, 30 April 2024.

Proposals for side events will be evaluated based on pre-established criteria, which include a balance of geographical areas and stakeholder types. Priority will be given to proposals involving multiple countries, organizations and different types of stakeholders.
