

Figure 1. GSP Action Framework

Pillar	Activities in the 2022-23 work plan (as discussed at the 7th ASP meeting)	Current status	New action areas according to the new GSP Action Framework
Pillar 1	RECSOIL	Interested countries are encouraged to contact Ms Cardoso for further information at Carolina.CardosoLisboa@fao.org	Manage sustainably and restore soils for the provision of ecosystem services
Pillar 2	Soil Atlas	Ongoing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pre-launch at the 22nd World Congress of Soil Science (August 2022)</li> <li>In-person workshop in Vietnam on digital soil</li> </ul>	Promote knowledge and literacy on soils

		mapping and data management (12-16 September 2022) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Pre-launch in Korea (September 2022)</li> <li>• Official launch (December 2022)</li> </ul>
Pillar 2	Policy brief	Ongoing	Strengthen soil governance/ Promote awareness raising and advocacy on soil health
Pillar 2	Global Soil Doctors Programme	Contact the Soil Doctors programme coordinators ( Silvia.Pioli@fao.org , carolina.oliverasanchez@fao.org ) to get more information about the possibility to implement the programme in more NENA countries	Promote knowledge and literacy on soils
Pillar 3	Database on soil research and development	Not feasible under the new GSP action framework	NA
Pillar 4	Digital soil mapping and INSII	Follow up with country representatives	Assess, map and monitor soil health in a harmonized way

Pillar 5	NENA Soil Laboratory Network (NENA)	NENALAB work plan ongoing.	Assess, map and monitor soil health in a harmonized way
-------------	--	-------------------------------	---