The incumbent may be re-assigned to different activities and/or duty stations depending on the evolving needs of the Organization.

Organizational Setting

The Forest Policy and Resources Division leads FAO's work in promoting sustainable forest management and providing leadership on the environmental, social and economic dimensions of forestry, including its contributions to poverty reduction and food security and nutrition. It liaises with member countries, civil society and the private sector in aspects ranging from development of effective forest policies to forest conservation and management issues, and strengthens the role of forests in climate change mitigation and adaptation. The Division also collects, analyses and disseminates information on the world's forest resources and on the production, trade and consumption of wood and non-wood forest products.

The FAO-EU Forest Law Enforcement, Governance and Trade (FLEGT) Programme (http://www.fao.org/in-action/forest_n/eu-fao-flegt-programme/en/) is located in the Forestry Policy and Resources Division. The objective of this multidonor programme is to support forest stakeholders in Africa, Asia and Latin America in addressing their most relevant and locally defined FLEGT issues/challenges through small grants and technical support.
