

Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations

150TH COUNCIL SIDE EVENT

FAO in support of the Global Health Security Agenda:

Making the world safer from emerging health threats like Ebola, bird flu and more

AGENDA

Tuesday 2 December 2014 • 12:30-14:30 • Iran Room (B116)

Agenda

Time	Activity/Topic	Presenter/Topic
12.30	Refreshments
13.00	Welcome and opening remarks	Ren Wang , Assistant Director-General, Agriculture and Consumer Protection Department
13.15	Progress in defining FAO's contributions to the Global Health Security Agenda: Prevent, Detect and Respond (15')	Juan Lubroth , Chief Veterinary Officer, Animal Health Service
	The GHSA as a multi-country initiative – leading the Agenda (5')	Sebastian Hielm , Ministerial adviser, Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry, the Republic of Finland
	The GHSA as a “One Health” approach from an Animal Production and Health perspective (5')	Berhe G. Tekola , Director, Animal Production and Health Division
	The role of the Joint FAO/IAEA Programme – Nuclear Technologies in Food and Agriculture in the GHSA (5')	Liang Qu , Director, Joint FAO/IAEA Division of Nuclear Techniques in Food and Agriculture
	The GHSA and parallels in Strategic Objective 5 (5')	Dominique Burgeon , Coordinator Strategic Objective on Resilience
	Antimicrobial resistance (AMR) – a specific GHSA action area (5')	Renata Clarke , Senior Officer – Food Safety, Agriculture and Consumer Protection Department
13.55	Questions and panel discussion	Berhe G. Tekola , Director, Animal Production and Health Division
14.25	Closing remarks	Ren Wang , Assistant Director-General, Agriculture and Consumer Protection Department
14.30	Closure	