Description of work	Continue work on a draft guidance on sampling plans for bulk materials / heterogeneous lots including practical examples applicable to mycotoxins, taking into account the discussions in CCMAS45 and any feedback from CCCF.

Timetable for work

Email for registration	CodexNZ@mpi.govt.nz
Registration deadline	June 30 2026
EWG online platform	Yes

Codex Members and Observers are invited to register their experts for this Electronic Working Group. When there is more than one expert, each country or observer organization shall designate one as the official representative to participate in the EWG.

Applications should be sent through the Codex Contact Point (CCP) of the member or recognized observer organization in an email detailing:

- participant's name
- official title or position
- organization or country
- email address.

The EWG platform

Link: <http://forum.codex-alimentarius.net/index.php>

Usergroup name: CCMAS45: Bulk Materials (2026)

The platform will require members to login. New participants to the platform should first register. (online guide, video tutorial)

Those participants who have previously registered on the platform can request to join the usergroup directly.

The EWG chair will give participants access to the group online once they have verified their credentials so please ensure that you follow the procedure for applications and email the chair through your CCP even if you are already registered on the platform.

Programme and timeline

The work programme and timelines will be circulated to members of the EWG soon after its establishment.

We look forward to your participation.
