

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Name: Ms Elizabeth A. Petrovski

Present Position: U.S. Mission to the UN Agencies in Rome (U.S. Embassy), Rome, Italy. Finance and Oversight Specialist, Lead staffer on WFP oversight and financial issues. Coordinates Working Group on bilateral financial management issues between WFP and U.S. Government. Overseer of USAID Rome Office with Office Administrator under the supervision of U.S. Direct Hire, including budget preparation and management, general administration, financial analysis and human resources administration (May 2005 to present).

Main previous positions:

1994-1999 Freelance Consultant. English courses: General and Business, Presentation Planning, Rome.

1999-2000 Consultant. Worldwide Smart Card Solutions Division. Market analysis, reporting on Rome regional transportation system for smart card transit fare project. Motorola Inc., Rome.

2000-2003 Adjunct Associate Professor of Economics, Principles of Economics course instruction. American University of Rome, Rome.

2002-2003 Business Analyst. Petroleum trading software installation - onsite client project coordination, Tradecapture Inc., Rome.

2004-2005 Freelance Consultant. English courses: General and Business, Presentation Planning, Rome.

Participation in meetings or activities of the United Nations and its Specialized Agencies:

2000-2002 Consultant, Treasury Unit, Finance Division. Financial analysis and reporting on FAO long-term financial assets; author, draft Treasury Unit Training Manual; Cash Management, FAO, Rome.

2005 Information Officer. Management and publication of logistics information provided to United Nations Agencies and participating aid agencies during 2005 Tsunami Response. Content management of United Nations Joint Logistics Centre (UNJLC) Tsunami Response website. Jakarta.