

Mountain Biodiversity Matters!

X Q E Y I O Q B W O S F E V D
S Z Z U T U G M P E S O G M R
V T R U I I V O O R H O H H A
R V N N H M S T R Q I D M Y P
R S O A R M A R J I B C S N O
A A N O L T P U E G L N E X E
N D S J O P E K N V A L D M L
I D I P B X E K K E I K A H W
M C O R N B F C B U C D A I O
A W R E I S F C L D N Z O C N
L W S O G V O V H V B J F I S
S E G N A H C E T A M I L C B
P D E C M E M K C Z F T Q V J
M O U N T A I N O Z Z Q V Y U
N O W S E L P P A Z K V M C C

Find the words that are bolded in the sentences below.

Half of the world's biodiversity hotspots are in mountains. Mountains are home to rare species of plants and animals like the gorilla and the snow leopard, and beautiful plants.

Important food such as corn, potatoes, quinoa, rice, beans and apples can be found in mountains. Coffee and tea are mountain crops as well.

Climate change is making a big impact on mountain biodiversity. We have to protect our mountains!