

AGENDA

---

Workshop on the Protection to Production project 24-25 September, 2013

---

Philippines Room (C 277/281)

DAY 1: Tuesday, 24 September

SESSION I

- Chair: Kostas Stamoulis (FAO)

Welcome and presentation of agenda (9:00-9:15)

- Jomo Kwame Sundaram (FAO)
- Benjamin Davis (FAO)

Setting the scene (9:15-10:00)

- An overview of cash transfer programs, impact evaluations and the Transfer Project research network in Sub Saharan Africa
  - Natalia Winder-Rossi (UNICEF) and Jenn Yablonski (UNICEF)

The PtoP project (10:00-10:45)

- Social protection, agriculture and the PtoP project
  - Benjamin Davis (FAO)

BREAK (10:45-11:15)

SESSION II

- Chair: Annalisa Conte (WFP)

Overview of qualitative impacts (11:15-12:15)

- Community dynamics, livelihoods and cash transfers in a cross country comparison: Ghana, Kenya, Zimbabwe and Lesotho
  - Presentation: Andrew Kardan (OPM) and Jeremy Holland (OPM)
  - Discussant: Terri Rooperaine (Independent Consultant)

Case study (12:15-13:15)

- Interpreting the impact of the LEAP programme in Ghana: a mixed method approach
  - Presentation: Ashu Handa (UNICEF) and Pamela Pozarny (FAO)
  - Discussant: Fabio Veras (IPC-IG)

LUNCH (13:15-14:30)

SESSION III

- Chair: Heshe Lemma (Tigray Regional Government)

Overview of local economy effects (14:30-15:30)

- Local Economy Wide Impact Evaluation (LEWIE) model in a cross-country perspective: what drives the differences in the simulated impact of cash transfer programs on the local economy?
  - Presentation: Ed Taylor (UC Davis)
  - Discussant: Alberto Zezza (World Bank)

Panel discussion #1 (15:30-16:30)

- Extensions of the LEWIE for policy and practice—what policy simulations can we focus on?
  - Ed Taylor (UC Davis), Rob Vos (FAO), Rachel Slater (ODI), Markus Goldstein (World Bank), Peter Mvula (CSR)

BREAK (16:30-17:00)

Panel discussion #2 (17:00-18:00)

- Lessons from applying a mixed method approach to analyze the impacts of cash transfer programs—what works?
  - Pamela Pozarny (FAO), Lawrence Ofori Addo (Government of Ghana), Elayn Sammon (UNICEF-Zimbabwe), Anna McCord (Independent Researcher), Ed Taylor (UC Davis)

Reception upstairs on the terrace (18:30)

DAY 2: Wednesday, 25 September

SESSION IV

- Chair: Johanna Knoess (GIZ)

Case study #2 (9:00-10:00)

- The impact of the Zambia CGP on household economic activities and livelihoods
  - Presentation: Silvio Daidone (FAO)
  - Discussants: Markus Goldstein (World Bank)

Panel Discussion #3 (10:00-11:00)

- When and under what conditions should we expect to find evidence of impact of cash transfer programs on household livelihoods?
  - Presentation: Paul Winters (American University)
  - Panel discussion: Guush Berhane (IFPRI), Solomon Asfaw (FAO), Peter Mvula (CSR), Laxton Chinhengo (Government of Zimbabwe)

BREAK (11:00-11:30)

Panel Discussion #4 (11:30-12:45)

- What is the PtoP communications strategy? How can and is the PtoP project influencing policy? How should this be linked to our partners in country?
  - Presentation: Renata Mirulla (FAO)
  - Panel discussion: Sarah Hague (UNICEF-Ghana), Laxton Chinhengo (Government of Zimbabwe), Borja Miguelez (FAO), Natalia Winder-Rossi (UNICEF), Heshe Lemma (Tigray Regional Government)

LUNCH (12:45-14:00)

SESSION V

- Chair:

Panel discussion #5 (14:00-15:00)

- Did the PtoP piggy backing model work in practice?
  - What do we mean by piggy backing?: Benjamin Davis (FAO)
  - Panel discussion: Ashu Handa (UNICEF), Gelson Tembo (Palm Associates), Elayn Sammon (UNICEF-Zimbabwe), Marta Moratti (OPM), Gero Carletto (World Bank),

Panel discussion #6 (15:00-16:00)

- How to better integrate PtoP into FAO activities (a look inward)
  - Borja Miguelez (FAO-Lesotho), Rob Vos (FAO), Kostas Stamoulis (FAO), Paul Winters (American University)

Panel discussion #7 (16:00-17:30)

- What is next for PtoP? (a look outward)
  - Benjamin Davis (FAO), Fabio Veras (IPC-IG), Rachel Slater (ODI), Gero Carletto (World Bank), Jenn Yablonski (UNICEF)

FAREWELL (17:30-17:45)

- Kostas Stamoulis (FAO)