

Intern, Social Inclusion

Location	FAO Representation in Nepal, Kathmandu, Nepal
Duration	3 months, with possibility of extension
Tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Support in stocktaking of national policies and laws related to the social safeguards relevant to landscape restoration activities in Nepal, particularly those on indigenous peoples and land and asset acquisition.• Through a review of the literature, statistical data and other secondary sources of information, as well as key informant interviews, support in identification project beneficiaries considering livelihoods, poverty, vulnerability to climate change and other socio-economic characteristics.• Support the identification of ethnic minority groups in the proposed Project area and propose the Project's approach to free, prior and informed consent (FPIC), including a possibility to organize a consultation with ethnic minority representatives.• Support in vulnerability mapping of the identified social and marginalized groups including gathering of gender disaggregated data and information.• Support in identification and analysis of best practices that address the issues of social inclusion and support mainstreaming of marginalized groups including Dalits and indigenous groups in the development process including in the management of natural resources.• Assist in organizing consultations with national and local stakeholders to discuss and validate findings and recommendations.• Work closely with other members of project formulation team.• Perform any other relevant tasks as assigned.
Academic qualifications	University degree in development studies, agriculture, economics, social sciences or other relevant field.
Technical competencies and experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Knowledge of the work of FAO.• Familiarity with youth and indigenous peoples issues in rural areas in Asia.• Competency in MS Office programmes.• Good writing and communication skills.• Good organisational skills and team spirit.
Language skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Excellent knowledge of written and spoken English.• Knowledge of local language(s) is required.