

Intern, Gender equality and women's empowerment

Location	FAO Representation in Tanzania, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania
Duration	3 months, with possibility of extension
Tasks	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Assist the office in implementing the Gender Equality Policy and advocate for gender equality.• Actively take part in developing a gender workplan to integrate gender issues in the office planning and implementation tools.• Screen FAO-led projects, programmes and normative work with a view to explore gender inequalities and identify gender-responsive solutions.• Participate in one UN Gender related discussions.• Foster coordination and communication between FAO Office and gender entities (such as gender team within UN System, Gender Focal Persons (GFPs) within national ministries)).• Facilitate the communication flow of gender-related information between Regional Gender Officers, ESP and Ministry officials• Provide updated information on gender-related work plan to FAO-HQ, Regional or Sub-Regional offices.• Produce an end-of-year gender report.• Collect and share gender-related good practices.
Academic qualifications	University degree in development studies, agriculture, economics, social sciences or other relevant field.
Technical competencies and experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Knowledge of the work of FAO.• Familiarity with indigenous peoples and gender issues.• Knowledge of issues relating to gender equality, women's empowerment and development, in particular food and nutrition security, agricultural and rural development in developing countries.• Competency in MS Office programmes.• Good writing and communication skills.• Good organisational skills and team spirit.
Language skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Excellent knowledge of written and spoken English.