

Regional Work Programme 2018-19 in the region of Europe and Central Asia

Raimund Jehle
Regional Programme Leader

Regional Consultation Workshop – Smallholders and Family Farms, Budapest, 13-14 March 2018

Regional-level driving factors

- Rural livelihoods and rural-urban divide
- Farm structure
- Climate resilient, sustainable agriculture and food systems
- Food security and malnutrition
- Agricultural trade policy

Regional Consultation Workshop – Smallholders and Family Farms, Budapest, 13-14 March 2018

External Challenges for implementation

- 2030 Agenda and the Paris Agreement
- Paradigm Shift in agriculture needed
- Partnership with non-state actors to achieve SDGs.
- Mobilize investments for sustainable agriculture and food systems
- Creation of an enabling environments for innovation

Regional Consultation Workshop – Smallholders and Family Farms, Budapest, 13-14 March 2018

Challenges manifested in priorities

as agreed at the ERC for the biennium 2018-19

Regional Consultation Workshop – Smallholders and Family Farms, Budapest, 13-14 March 2018

The Regional Initiatives to achieve results

- RIs as a programmatic umbrella
- Guide for the implementation of the workplans
- Coherence and synergies at country level
- Inclusion of cross-cutting issues
- Better response to the country demands

Regional Consultation Workshop – Smallholders and Family Farms, Budapest, 13-14 March 2018

Regional Initiatives in Europe and Central Asia Main goals

RI1 – Empowering smallholders and family farms for improved rural livelihoods and poverty reduction

SO3, SO2

RI2 – Improving agrifood trade and market integration

SO4, SO1

RI3 – Sustainable natural resource management under a changing climate

SO2, SO5

Regional Consultation Workshop – Smallholders and Family Farms, Budapest, 13-14 March 2018

Regional Initiatives in Europe and Central Asia Contribution to SDGs

RI1 – Empowering smallholders and family farms for improved rural livelihoods and poverty reduction

RI2 – Improving agrifood trade and market integration

RI3 – Sustainable natural resource management under a changing climate

Regional Consultation Workshop – Smallholders and Family Farms, Budapest, 13-14 March 2018

Thank you for your attention!

Raimund Jehle
Regional Programme Leader

Regional Consultation Workshop – Smallholders and Family Farms, Budapest, 13-14 March 2018