Empowerment of Vulnerable IDPs, Case of Georgia

Zaza Chelidze, FAO Georgia

IDPs in Georgia

-  ☐ 7.3% of population (women constitute more than half of IDPs).
-  ☐ A large share of the IDPs live in collective settlements
-  ☐ Insufficient housing conditions and limited access to services
-  ☐ Poverty among Georgian IDPs is widespread
-  ☐ 12% of IDPs receive TSA compared to 9% of the overall population
-  ☐ Bad health is a major concern among IDPs - the prevalence of having at least one household member with a chronic disease is 45% and 66% in IDP households

IDPs in Agriculture, Challenges

- ☐ Lack of real estate - own house or land
- ☐ Agricultural activities - mostly subsistence farming
- ☐ Limited access to storage facilities
- ☐ Absence of collateral

National Strategy for Providing Access to Subsistence Sources for IDPs

- ☐ Governmental agencies, with the support of international organizations, should implement socio-economic programs
- ☐ Purpose of programs is to achieve social integration of IDPs
- ☐ Improving economic status of IDPs
- ☐ Supporting employment in rural areas for those IDPs who possess relevant agricultural skills (should be implemented through the assistance of donors (e.g. grants))

FAO's Intervention

PROJECT: “Gender sensitive socio-economic empowerment of vulnerable IDPs through co-funding of their livelihoods opportunities and promotion of their social mobilisation” 2016-2017
