

Guiding questions for the group discussion and reporting

Thailand

1. What is the biggest benefit of estimating and reporting soil CSC in national GHG inventories?

- Develops GHG-report in some sectors for instant, Agriculture, Forestry
- Enhance climate change strategies planning
- Systematically data correction for Cultivation policy planning
- Land use planning for policy making to make the decision about GHG emission

2. What are the main challenges?

- Integration among organizations : Data collections
- Develop human resources and new technology: Software, R, Python, Java.
- Rise Awareness of all stakeholders

3. What is the immediate next step to overcome these challenges?

- Set Policy, Work-Planning and human resources
- Capacity building for the GHG evaluation by following IPCC 2006 guideline, urgent need for understanding /harmonize methods of measurement, reporting, verification among country partners.
- Harmonization of the land use classes in order to compare situation with other countries and provide the reliable results with reliable uncertainty for good decision making.