Visa Arrangements for Participants

Participants from certain SIPAM member countries may require entry visa to Cyprus. The delegates are invited to contact their respective consulates, in order to obtain all the relevant information that is required regarding visa arrangements.

Weather

The weather in Cyprus is usually relatively warm during November with temperatures ranging from 18–24 °C. Delegates are however encouraged to bring a jacket, particularly for the evenings.

Larnaca Airport

The city of Larnaca is situated on the southeast coast of Cyprus. Larnaca airport is connected with direct flights from most major European, Asian, and African airports. For flight details and connections from your country please contact your local travel agency.

Transfer from the Airport to the Hotel

Larnaca airport is relatively close to the Hotel (approximately 5–10 minutes drive) and the cost is about CY £ 6.00–£ 7.00 (approximately 12 euro or 16 US dollars) each way. Taxi service is available at the airport.

Currency and Exchange

The currency in Cyprus is the Cyprus Pound and the current rate (1st of October, 2006)
1 CY£ = 2.2 US$ or 1 CY£ = 1.7 € The Cyprus Pound bank note denominations are 5, 10, and 20 Pounds and each Pound is divided by 100 cents.

Accommodation

The hotel hosting the meeting (Sun Hall Hotel, 4 Stars) is offering accommodation only for the participants at the following discounted rates:

Single	CY£ 34.75	per night (approximately €60 or US $76)
Double	CY£ 49.50	per night (approximately €85 or US $110)

The above prices include breakfast.

The rates are quite good and it will be hard to find something else at a lower cost, but if there is a problem with the budget available to any of the representatives, please get in touch with the organizers to examine any alternative options for accommodation.

Hotel reservations should be made via Cyprus' National Coordinator, Mr V. Papadopoulos.
